Empowering the West Jay L. Brigham, 1998 Westerners were at the forefront of the debate over electric power development even before the construction of large federally owned dams in the 1930s At the heart of this debate was a conflict between public power advocates and the private utility industry over control of the environment a struggle that was played out in the political arena In this book Jay Brigham describes that rivalry in the West in the years before the New Deal Focusing on the conservative city of Los Angeles and its liberal counterpart Seattle as well as on several small towns in the Midwest Brigham shows how fierce battles broke out as private and public systems competed for customers and how despite the differences between these two cities public power ultimately triumphed in each

Americanizing the West Frank Van Nuys, 2002 The arrival of immigrants on America s shores has always posed a singular problem once they are here how are these diverse peoples to be transformed into Americans The Americanization movement of the 1910s and 1920s addressed this challenge by seeking to train immigrants for citizenship representing a key element of the Progressives search for order in a modernizing America Frank Van Nuys examines for the first time how this movement in an effort to help integrate an unruly West into the emerging national system was forced to reconcile the myth of rugged individualism with the demands of a planned society In an era convulsed by world war and socialist revolution the Americanization movement was especially concerned about the susceptibility of immigrants to un American propaganda and union agitation As Van Nuys convincingly demonstrates this applied as much to immigrants in the urbanizing and industrializing West as it did to those occupying the ethnic enclaves of cities in the East In Americanizing the West he tells how hundreds of bureaucrats educators employers and reformers participated in this movement by developing adult immigrant education programs and how these attempts contributed more toward bureaucratizing the West than it did to turning immigrants into productive citizens He deftly ties this history to broader national developments and shows how Westerners brought distinctive approaches to Americanization to accommodate and preserve their own sense of history and identity Van Nuys shows that although racism and social control agendas permeated Americanization efforts in the West Americanizers sustained their faith in education as a powerful force in transforming immigrants into productive citizens He also shows how some westerners especially in California believed they faced a racial frontier unlike other parts of the country in light of the influx of Hispanics and Asians so that westerners became major players in the crafting of not only American identity but also immigration policies The mystique of the white pioneer past still maintains a powerful hold on ideas of American identity and we still deal with many of these issues through laws and propositions targeting immigrants and alien workers Americanizing the West makes a clear case for regional distinctiveness in this citizenship program and puts current headlines in perspective by showing how it helped make the West what it is today Mission Field ,1918 Theodore Roosevelt, Typical American Thomas Herbert Russell,1919 New York Magazine ,1993-10-04 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea American Economist and Tariff League Bulletin ... ,1907 The Banner of Israel ,1915 Western Civilization Margaret L. King,2000 For introductory courses in Western Civilization This text explains why Western civilization is worth knowing about It takes a consistently topical approach stressing social and cultural themes in conjunction with the political narrative and incorporates significant discussion of peoples and civilizations outside the boundaries of the West Written by a single author it is accompanied by rich visual images textual excerpts boxes timelines charts and maps all closely related to the narrative Western Christian Advocate ,1898 Herringshaw's National Library of American Biography Thomas William Herringshaw,1914 The Australian Flying Corps in the Western and Eastern Theatres of War, 1914-1918 Frederic Morley Cutlack,1923 The American Catalogue ,1880 Hoping to avoid the worry of caring for a valuable object Miss Teaberry gives away the locket her cat finds in the garden only to find herself enmeshed in a situation of escalating chaos The American Catalog ,1880 The Growth of the American Republic Samuel Eliot Morison, Henry Steele Commager,1930 The American Church Monthly ,1925 The American Marine Engineer ,1918
