Reverend Loyce Estes with the Cumberland Presbyterian Church at the funeral services on December 23 1969 addressed the congregation The dignified First Lady of the Louisiana Presbytery is dead Vibrantly alive are the articles of faith that constitute our legacy May her mantle fall on us prayerfully Reverend Mrs Ada Caston Slaton Bonds is one of the most colorful ministers ever produced by the great Cumberland Presbyterian Church Beyond a doubt she overcame more difficulties and passed through more heartaches than any minister ever known to preach the Whosoever Will gospel Miss Ada as all affectionately called her possessed countless prodigies By way of the corridors of her ministerial career she helped shape the lives and mold the character of a great number of young ministers who today rise up and call her blessed God sent her His Divine calling to preach She then learned to preach She carved out a place for herself among the clergy that was unique without comparison With bottomless emotion genuine poise and true dignity Miss Ada became the First Lady of the Cloth in the Louisiana Presbytery and had the highest honor bestowed upon her the title of Mother of All Presbyteries Brother Kerans finished the Sunday morning services by calling on Reverend Paul Covey Johnson standing by her frail and physical body awaiting its final resting place in the Old Bethany Cumberland Presbyterian Church cemetery outside Coushatta Louisiana He began her final epitaph I m walking along the seashore A ship is floating near to me spreading her white sails as it begins a voyage that takes Miss Ada further and further out into the ocean She s a powerful vessel one of beauty and strength I watch her until she looks like a disappearing speck of a fluffy cloud where the horizon of the sea and sky intermingle with one another Then I realized her diminished size is in me not in her Look there She is gone Nelson along with Ada s brother Lilburn are standing together with eager eyes watching from one of the twelve gates to heaven There are beautiful angels stationed at each of the entrances Looking more closely she sees her mother and father standing near Lilburn There are smiles on all of their faces and a happy and content look to their demeanor standing and waiting there to take up the welcomed shout HERE SHE COMES Many times throughout the writing of her memoirs I came to respect her inner strength her compassion and her gentleness Never in my life have I delved into the scriptures and analyzed what each meant more so than when I put her memoirs on paper To bring these memoirs to a close I attended the homecoming services at the Progress Cumberland Presbyterian Church in Pleasant Hill Louisiana as they celebrated their 100th Anniversary Miss Ada is still spoken of highly Her last letter written to the church on December 10 1969 still hangs on the walls of the sanctuary Brother Lawson led the congregation in the singing of many gospel tunes and delivered the Sunday morning message I close this description with a quote from Brother Lawson Miss Ada set the standards high for being a minister in the Cumberland Presbyterian Church She was an anomaly for her time Still today we find the bar for preaching the word of God set high for all young men and women entering the ministry If one listened closely they would have heard the words echo from my namesake Sidney Slaton Mamma Was a Preacher Liberty Lanes Robin Troy,2011-11-01 Liberty Lanes is a bowling alley in a small Montana town where a senior bowling league meets three times a week Nelson Moore one of the bowlers has recently become a local hero by saving a teammate from choking on a happy hour chicken bone Now he must deal with his newfound fame while coping with the early stages of dementia This is an engaging and often moving novel about a group of senior citizens bound together by old friendships and romances and by their determination to live life to its fullest Senescence is not for sissies but these characters show us that it is still a time to love dream and explore their own potential
