The Handbook for the New Art and Science of Teaching Robert J. Marzano, 2019

In The Handbook for the New Art and Science of Teaching Robert J. Marzano provides a comprehensive guide to the framework for a substantive change he introduces in The New Art and Science of Teaching. This straightforward guide helps F-12 teachers become familiar with the structure of The New Art and Science of Teaching framework and provides a wealth of tips and actionable steps to master implementation. In his framework, Marzano identifies ten design areas within three categories of teaching: 1. feedback, 2. content, and 3. context, that form a road map for teachers' lesson and unit planning. In each chapter of this handbook, Marzano offers specific instructional guidance and suggestions for using every one of the 330+ strategies from his framework; it sets teachers up for success by providing a strong starting point from which to let their artistic instincts thrive. Readers will thoroughly examine The New Art and Science of Teaching framework, discover many examples that illustrate specific instructional strategies, reimagine ways to improve the classroom environment, develop relationships, and increase student engagement. Benefit from over one hundred reproducibles to help them implement The New Art and Science of Teaching framework along with many more online tools. Use self-reflection tools to ensure effective implementation.

and demands of today's culture and the edutainer is the paradigm shift needed for education to be relevant, applicable, and effective in the 21st Century. The Edutainer describes an educational approach that provides teachers with core operational and interpersonal skills to be an effective educator in the twenty-first century. These skills include communication, organization, management, planning, and building authentic relationships based upon respect and personal responsibility. The Edutainer is unique in its perspective that the educator should be fluid and adapting to our current culture while employing sound academic principles. The edutainer concept is derived from the principles that we believe make for an effective educator and entertainer. First, edutainers are visionaries who understand that a change in culture requires a change in methods and presentation. These edutainers make their material relevant to present culture. Preparation is also vital to these performers. They organize and plan their material long before they get on stage or their performance would fail. Finally, the effective educator and entertainer have to deliver a stellar performance that is relatable to the audience. The Edutainer offers strategies and ideas to build and nurture authentic relationships with students, parents, and colleagues to build a dynamic educational community. Suggestions for developing the 3R's of education, which include respect, responsibility, and authentic relationships. Explanations of present-day cultural influences upon formal education and learning. Strategies for teacher empowerment and leadership abilities. Methodologies for classroom management and organization. Ideas for connecting education to the real world with relevant and engaging lessons.
