Dublin Carol A Play:

A Dublin Carol Conor McPherson, 2000 The Daily Mail McPherson writes like a dream Dublin Carol works an ingenious spell in telling the story of undertaker John Plunkett who on Christmas Eve is sharing his funereal memories with his young assistant With the unexpected visit from his estranged grown up daughter he is forced to face up to his disastrous past so that he can make a truce with his future Jacket

Dublin Carol Conor McPherson, 2003 THE STORY DUBLIN CAROL centers around John Plunkett an undertaker in his late fifties The play is divided into three scenes all of which take place in his office in Dublin on Christmas Eve In the morning we see John interacting with Mark a tw

Irish Theatre in the Twenty-First Century Nicholas Grene, 2024-09-27 Irish Theatre in the Twenty First Century is the first in depth study of the subject It analyses the ways in which theatre in Ireland has developed since the 1990s when emerging playwrights Martin McDonagh Conor McPherson and Enda Walsh turned against the tradition of lyrical eloquence with a harsh and broken dramatic language Companies such as Blue Raincoat the Corn Exchange and Pan Pan pioneered an avant garde dramaturgy that no longer privileged the playwright This led to new styles of production of classic Irish works including the plays of Synge mounted in their entirety by Druid The changed environment led to a re imagining of past Irish history in the work of Rough Magic and ANU plays by Owen McCafferty Stacey Gregg and David Ireland dramatizing the legacy of the Troubles and adaptations of Greek tragedy by Marina Carr and others reflecting the conditions of modern Ireland From 2015 the movement WakingTheFeminists led to a sharpened awareness of gender While male playwrights showed a toxic masculinity on the stage a generation of female dramatists including Carr Gregg and Nancy Harris gave voice to the experiences of women long suppressed in conservative Ireland For three separate periods 2006 2016 2020 2 the author served as one of the judges for the Irish Times Irish Theatre Awards attending all new productions across the island of Ireland This allowed him to provide the detailed overview of the state of play of Irish theatre in each of those times which punctuate the book as one of its most innovative features Drawing also on interviews with Ireland s leading theatre makers Grene provides readers with a close up understanding of Irish theatre in a period when Ireland became for the first time a fully modernized secular and multi ethnic society

The Theatre and Films of Conor McPherson Eamonn Jordan, 2019-02-21 The spellbinding premiere of The Weir at the Royal Court in 1997 was the first of many works to bring Conor McPherson to the attention of the theatre going public Acclaimed plays followed including Shining City The Seafarer The Night Alive and Girl from the North Country garnering international acclaim and being regularly produced around the globe McPherson has also had significant successes as a theatre director film director and screenwriter most notably with his award winning screenplay for I Went Down This companion offers a detailed and engaging critical analysis of the plays and films of Conor McPherson It considers issues of gender and class disparity violence and wealth in the cultural and political contexts in which the work is written and performed as well as the inclusion of song sound the supernatural religious and pagan festive sensibilities through which initial genre perceptions are nudged elsewhere towards the unconscious and ineffable. Supplemented by a number of contributed critical and performance perspectives including an interview with Conor McPherson, this is a book to be read by theatre audiences, performance makers and students who wish to explore, contextualize and situate McPherson's provocative, exquisite and generation-defining writings and performances. Close to the Next Moment Jody Allen Randolph, 2010-12-01

A collection of interviews featuring Irish poets, artists, fiction writers and playwrights, this record chronicles how these cultural leaders viewed their country in the first decade of the new millennium as economic collapse gathered pace and recurrent concerns gained a new urgency. Answering questions such as 'What are Irish values? How have they changed?' and 'How do new cultural realities affect the old arts of language and image that have been so important in Irish tradition?' this account journeys across political divides and languages. Interviewees include Gerry Adams, Joyce Kilmer, Dorothy Cross, Nuala O'Donoghue and Seamus Heaney among many others. Plays International, 2006 Theatre Record, 2006

American Theatre, 2008 The Best Plays Theater Yearbook 2007-2008 Jeffrey Eric Jenkins, 2009-10-01

Here in this 86th edition of The Best Plays Theater Yearbook are all of the many features that have long distinguished this indispensable reference work on the American theater. What makes the series unique is its unequalled depth and breadth of information on the season under review and its record of the key achievements in theater over a multitude of earlier seasons: detailed listings of all plays produced on and Off Broadway and hundreds Off Off Broadway between June 2004 and May 2005; essays by distinguished theater critics and commentators on all 10 of the chosen plays; listings of the longest running plays and of the winners of the notable theater awards in many cases ever since those awards were established and the full membership of the Theater Hall of Fame. But the scope of this book extends far beyond New York, recognizing as it does the vitality and the innovative contributions of resident theaters throughout the country. The invaluable survey of the season around the United States includes the American Theatre Critics Association's Steinberg New Play Award and Citations plus a directory of more than 300 new play productions and readings at resident theaters everywhere. As always, this compendious book is illustrated with scores of photographs of productions in New York and around the United States. Book Jacket New York, 2003-03
