G. Thomas,2011-02-08 The new edition of Arid Zone Geomorphology aims to encapsulate the advances that have been made in recent years in the investigation and explanation of landforms and geomorphological processes in drylands Building on the success of the previous two editions the Third Edition has been completely revised and updated to reflect the latest developments in the field Whilst this latest edition will remain a comprehensive reference to the subject the book has been restructured to include regional case studies throughout to enhance student understanding and is clearly defined into five distinct sections Firstly the book introduces the reader to Large Scale Controls and Variability in Drylands and then moves on to consider Surface Processes and Characteristics The Work of Water The Work of the Wind The book concludes with a section on Living with Dryland Geomorphology that includes a chapter on geomorphological hazards and the human impact on these environments Once again recognised world experts in the field have been invited to contribute chapters in order to present a comprehensive and up to date overview of current knowledge about the processes shaping the landscape of deserts and arid regions In order to broaden the appeal of the Third Edition the book has been reduced in extent by 100 pages and the Regional chapters have been omitted in favour of the inclusion of key regional case studies throughout the book The Editor is also considering the inclusion of a supplementary website that could include further images problems and case studies      Pleromatica, or Elsinore's Trance Gabriel Catren,2026-01-06 A precise and poetic argument for the renewal of transcendental philosophy The great poets and thinkers of modernity described a situation we still inhabit today the catastrophic undermining of all foundations the disorienting relativization of all reference points the prospect of abandonment to chance and contingency alone the shipwreck of Mallarmé's Coup de dés In this precise and poetic work of philosophy Gabriel Catren sketches out a new phenomenological solution to this momentous ungrounding defiantly refusing both unrestrained contingency and arbitrary refoundation Mobilizing a formidable knowledge of the major currents of modern thought deftly articulating Kantian transcendentalism and Spinozian immanentism phenomenological reduction and scientific realism Catren argues that the projects oriented by the infinite ideas of reason Truth Beauty Justice Love need not be abandoned in the face of the exquisite crisis of modernity Instead the shipwreck is to be understood as a suspension of finite subjectivity in the fullness of a phenomenological pleroma an atonal milieu ringing with unheard of possibilities Announcing an ambitious program for the renewal of transcendental philosophy in Pleromatica Catren recomposes the primary elements of modern thought into a startling new configuration introducing a vivid constellation of new concepts with which to map out and navigate the vast space of this worldless daydream
