Duppy Stories:

A Jamaican Storyteller's Tale Lorrimer Burford, 2005 Underpinned by common Jamaican themes A Jamaican Storyteller's Tale is the story of a young man intent on saving an aspect of his heritage that is dying storytelling Heavily influenced by his father's skill at relating these stories he comes face to face with the possibility of losing his heritage when his family migrates Lorrimer Burford merges traditional Jamaican tales with the story of this young man to create a unique synthesis

Documentary as Exorcism Robert Beckford, 2014-01-16 Documentary as Exorcism is an interdisciplinary study that builds upon the insights of postcolonial studies critical race theory theological and religious studies and media and film studies to showcase the role of documentary film as a system of signifying capable of registering complex theological ideas while pursuing the authentic aims of documentary filmmaking Robert Beckford marries the concepts of theology as visual practice and theology as political engagement to develop a new mode of documentary filmmaking that embeds emancipation from oppression in its aesthetic In various documentaries made for Channel 4 and the BBC Beckford narrates the complicit relationship of Christianity with European expansion slavery and colonialism as a historic manifestation of evil In light of the cannibalistic practices of colonialism that devoured black life and the church's role in the subjugation and theological legitimization of black bodies Beckford characterises this form of historic Christian faith as colonial Christianity and its malevolent or occult practices as a form of bewitchment that must be exorcised He identifies and exorcises the evil practices of colonialism and their present impact upon African Caribbean Christian communities in Britain in films such as Britain's Slave Trade and Empire Pays Back through a deliberate process of encoding decoding The emancipatory impact of this form of documentary filmmaking is demonstrated by its ability to bring issues such as reparations to the public square for debate and its capacity to change a corporation's trade policies for the good of Africans

Duppy Stories David Brailsford, 2001-06 A collection of supernatural stories from Jamaica featuring ghosts gremlins and rolling calves Some are true some sinister some amusing but all bring to life the underbelly of a country which while devoutly religious is very much open to the world of the bush doctor spirits and of course the ubiquitous duppies
