Veal,2007 The first inside story of this Jamaican reggae style From Harvey River Lorna Goodison,2009-03-03 When Doris Harvey s English grandfather William Harvey discovers a clearing at the end of a path cut by the feet of those running from slavery he gives his name to what will become his family s home for generations For Doris Harvey River is the place she always called home the place where she was one of the fabulous Harvey girls and where the rich local bounty of Lucea yams

pimentos and mangoes went hand in hand with the Victorian niceties of her parents house It is a place she will return to in dreams when her fortunes change years later and she and her husband Marcus Goodison relocate to hard life Kingston and encounter the harsh realities of urban living in close quarters In Lorna Goodison s luminous memoir of her forebears we meet a cast of wonderfully drawn characters including George O Brian Wilson the Irish patriarch of the family who marries a Guinea woman after coming to Jamaica in the mid 1800s Doris s parents Margaret and David childhood sweethearts who become the first family of Harvey River and Margaret and David s eight children In lush vivid prose textured with the cadences of Creole speech Lorna Goodison weaves together memory and mythology to create a vivid tapestry She takes us deep into the heart of a complete world to tell a universal story of family and the ties that bind us to the place we call home
