Defending the Durkheimian Tradition Jonathan S. Fish,2017-03-02 This book provides an exciting accessible and wide ranging guide to the development of classical and contemporary Durkheimian thought Jonathan Fish offers a re reading of the writings of Emile Durkheim and Talcott Parsons on religion He aims to move beyond rationalistic readings which have neglected the key significance of collective human emotion in Durkheim s accounts of the link between society religion and morality He goes on to look at the development of these ideas in the work of Parsons and more recent Durkheimian thinkers Making an important contribution both to studies of Durkheim and the Durkheimian tradition and to the sociology of emotion the book is distinctive in arguing that religion is an essential backdrop for understanding emotion In making this claim the author provides a key to re establishing links between the sociology of religion and the wider discipline of sociology

Demography: Analysis and Synthesis, Four Volume Set Graziella Caselli,Jacques Vallin,Guillaume Wunsch,2006-01-03

This four volume collection of over 140 original chapters covers virtually everything of interest to demographers sociologists and others Over 100 authors present population subjects in ways that provoke thinking and lead to the creation of new perspectives not just facts and equations to be memorized The articles follow a theory methods applications approach and so offer a kind of one stop shop that is well suited for students and professors who need non technical summaries such as political scientists public affairs specialists and others Unlike shorter handbooks Demography Analysis and Synthesis offers a long overdue thorough treatment of the field Choosing the analytical method that fits the data and the situation requires insights that the authors and editors of Demography Analysis and Synthesis have explored and developed This extended examination of demographic tools not only seeks to explain the analytical tools themselves but also the relationships between general population dynamics and their natural economic social political and cultural environments Limiting themselves to human populations only the authors and editors cover subjects that range from the core building blocks of population change fertility mortality and migration to the consequences of demographic changes in the biological and health fields population theories and doctrines observation systems and the teaching of demography The international perspectives brought to these subjects is vital for those who want an unbiased rounded overview of these complex multifaceted subjects Topics to be covered Population Dynamics and the Relationship Between Population Growth and Structure The Determinants of Fertility The Determinants of Mortality The Determinants of Migration Historical and Geographical Determinants of Population The Effects of Population on Health Economics Culture and the Environment Population Policies Data Collection Methods and Teaching about Population Studies All chapters share a common format Each chapter features several cross references to other chapters Tables charts and other non text features are widespread Each chapter contains at least 30 bibliographic citations The Catholic Ethic and Global Capitalism Bryan Fields,2017-11-22 This title was first published in 2003

Fields traces the origins of recent economic growth in Ireland over a long period of development. In doing so he opens up an old debate with new data interpretations and evidence that will force many to question existing truths about the role of religion in economic growth. The work is founded on an innovative methodology and unique primary and secondary resource material that has never been used in a study of this kind. This is timely as the area has a growing international market and addresses some recently ignored themes in the Social Sciences in particular religion. Whilst concerned with global issues this text also focuses on one country which economists and sociologists as well as those in other Social Sciences areas will find of great interest.

Sociological Abstracts Leo P. Chall, 2004. CSA Sociological Abstracts abstracts and indexes the international literature in sociology and related disciplines in the social and behavioral sciences. The database provides abstracts of journal articles and citations to book reviews drawn from over 1 800 serials publications and also provides abstracts of books book chapters dissertations and conference papers.

East Asian International Relations in History Kyu-hyun Jo, 2024-08-28. This book provides a sweeping overview of East Asian international relations in history from the nineteenth century onwards with a focus on Korea and its relationship with East Asia and the USA. In contrast with many books which concentrate exclusively on the twentieth century this book offers a long term perspective on modernity and modernization in East Asia. It addresses the tributary system the Meiji Restoration Japanese imperialism in East Asia and the Cold War in East Asia. It also incorporates the First and Second Indochina Wars from Vietnam's perspective and expands the geographical scope of East Asia beyond the traditional framework of Korea Japan and China. The book begins with the tributary system as a starting point of East Asian modernity in contrast to the old view that the tributary system was not a modern system. It rejects the idea that Japan was modernizing while Korea remained stagnant and shows why Japanese colonialism continues to be controversial and problematic. Through the book's emphasis on Vietnam's perspective of the Indochina Wars it places much value on nationalism anti imperialism and decolonization as forces of modernity and modernization. Relevant to scholars and students in history international relations and East Asian studies more broadly the book brings with it a novel fresh and innovative approach to East Asian history.

Restructuring large housing estates in Europe Kempen, Ronald van, Dekker, Karien, 2005-11-30. All over Europe post Second World War large scale housing estates face physical economic social and cultural problems. This book presents the key findings of a major EU funded research programme into the restructuring of twenty nine large scale housing estates in Northern Western Southern and Eastern Europe. Policy and practice between and within the ten countries studied UK the Netherlands Sweden Germany Poland Hungary Slovenia Italy Spain and France is compared. While existing literature focuses on the negative aspects of large scale housing estates this book starts from the premise that the estates can be transformed into attractive places to live and focuses on the possibilities of sustainability and renewal through social physical and policy actions. Specifically the book explains the origins and nature of contemporary problems on the estates examines which policy objectives measures and processes have had the greatest impact assesses and compares a wide range of local regional and national initiatives discusses current ideas and philosophies such as place making and collaborative planning that are likely to influence future policy and practice and provides good practice guidance for neighbourhood sustainability and renewal Written by a multi national team of experts and drawing on original fieldwork the book provides unique comparative insights into the present and future position of large scale housing estates in Europe Restructuring large scale housing estates in Europe is an invaluable resource for a wide audience of academics researchers students and policy makers in the fields of housing urban studies community studies regeneration planning and social policy

Muslims in the West and the Challenges of Belonging Fethi Mansouri, Vince Marotta, 2012-01-02 Sensational reporting by the media has led to attitudes that racialise Muslims and frame them as potential threats to national security placing them outside the circle of trustworthy citizenship Muslims in the West are increasingly confronted with the pressure of conforming to dominant core values and accepting mere tolerance from society or else risk exclusion and even hostility when exercising their rights to maintain diverse cultural norms and religious practices Muslims in the West and the Challenges of Belonging offers not only rigorous accounts of current difficulties but also new thinking and deeper understanding about race relations and intercultural engagement in multicultural societies It explores the increasing visibility of Muslim migrants in the West and the implications this has for multicultural co existence cultural representations belonging and inclusive citizenship Islamic Studies Series Volume 10

Social Work in a Risk Society Stephen A. Webb, 2006-01-23 This path breaking text constructs a new way of thinking about social work based on contemporary social theory Working in a counter tradition that is suspicious of a number of governing ideas and practices in social work it draws on themes from Beck Giddens Rose to explore the impact of risk society and neo liberalism on social work

International Bibliography of Book Reviews of Scholarly Literature Chiefly in the Fields of Arts and Humanities and the Social Sciences ,2000 Youth, Crime, and Justice Clayton A. Hartjen,2008 Close to half of the world s population is below the age of criminal jurisdiction in most countries Many of these young people are living in poverty and under totalitarian regimes Given their deprived and often abject circumstances it is not surprising that many of them become involved in crime In Youth Crime and Justice Clayton A Hartjen provides a broad overview of juvenile delinquency how it manifests itself around the world and how societies respond to misconduct among their children Taking a global rather than country specific approach chapters focus on topics that range from juvenile laws and the correction of child offenders to the abuse exploitation and victimization of young people Hartjen includes specific examples from the United States Australia Spain Switzerland New Zealand Japan India Egypt and elsewhere as he sorts through the various definitions of delinquent and explores the differences in behavior that contribute to these classifications Most importantly his in depth and comparative look at judicial systems worldwide raises questions about how young offenders should be corrected and how much fault can be laid on misbehaving youths acting out against the very societies that produced them Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2002 Urban Development and New Localism Sudha

Mohan,2005 The concern of the present work is to examine urban development and new localism with special reference to Mumbai It views urban development in the present context as development taking place in the urban realm with special emphasis on people centred development PCD in Mumbai The study traces the evolution of the concept of development from its growth oriented approach to the present approach of PCD In fact development in general and urban development in particular with emphasis on PCD received scant attention in both the policy pronouncements as well as the programmes and plans made after independence An effort is made in this study to develop the argument that urban development of the people centred kind lends itself to sustainable cities where government collaborates with the people through their civil society organisations to bring about change that is not only positive but also sustainable It reiterates the relevance of the PCD paradigm in Mumbai and emphasises the inter connectivity between civil society actors and government at all levels The theoretical frame is reinstated in terms of salience of civil society state in society perspective social capital formation and viability of new localism The conclusion drawn from the two Mumbai based case studies constitutes the core of the empirical component based on qualitative research that is aimed at validating the theoretical formulations and features of PCD and new localism
