Dutch Embassy In Berlin By Oma Rem Koolhaas:

Dutch Embassy in Berlin by OMA/Rem Koolhaas Rem Koolhaas, François Chaslin, 2004 Fotoboek over het gebouw van de Nederlandse ambassade in Berlijn ontworpen door Rem Koolhaas en zijn bureau OMA met een analyse van het gebouw

Koolhaas Rem / Oma - The Dutch Embassy in Berlin Kayoko Ota, Rem Koolhaas, Veronique Patteeuw, 2003-08-31 This past November Berlin gained yet one more spectacular example of contemporary architecture The new Dutch Embassy by OMA Rem Koolhaas has been built on the River Spree in what used to be East Berlin Renowned for his Kunsthal in Rotterdam Congrexpo in Lille and the villa in Bordeaux among other extraordinary projects Koolhaas will now also be recognized for his Berlin embassy a structure that firmly attests to the astonishing design talent of the Netherlands best known architect Two concepts underpin the design for the embassy the first instigated by the city's strict planning regulations which require that every corner of a city block be built up Thus Koolhaas designed one corner of the site to fit a freestanding cube that houses the actual embassy the other corners are defined by an L shaped block of three houses for embassy staff But the principal organizing element is a continuous route that spirals through the building the different embassy departments are strung off it discretely The spiral winds its way through the cube accompanied by new and unexpected views of the building and of the city In this publication sketches drawings and models illustrate the design's points of departure and Koolhaas himself expounds upon the project's context German photographer Candida Höfer famous for her large scale color photographs of architectural spaces offers her personal perspective on the embassy's exterior and interior while Parisian architecture critic François Chaslin provides a textual analysis

Key Contemporary Buildings Rob Gregory, 2008 Third in the Key series this book features 95 buildings of the early twenty first century Each of the buildings is illustrated with one or two full color photographs and accurate scale floor plans elevations and sections as appropriate

Mediations in Cultural Spaces John Wall, 2009-03-26 The essays collected in this volume address the cultural and intellectual production of space Cultures under discussion may be identified at a general level according to notional designations of East and West and range from those of Iran Turkey Western Europe and the United States While the interests orientations and methodologies of the individual contributions are diverse there is a general tendency to forgo official national and regional discourses of social space in favour of discussions exploring the material and intellectual conditions according to which cultural entities come to see themselves as spatially located and or dislocated To this end this volume brings together philosophical historical and critical interpretative treatments of virtual space architecture music sculpture literature religion advertising politics and the cyberspace of the new media Space is variously conceived in terms of the radical imaginary metaphor irruption intensity mimesis ontology the materiality of the earth power and emancipation There is expressed the conviction in these essays that interdisciplinary and eclectic approaches combined with sustained and critical reflection on concepts of space contribute to an understanding of space as radically mobile

examination of a crucial but neglected aspect of architecture by an architect writing to architects Maintenance plays a crucial role in the production and endurance of architecture yet architects for the most part treat maintenance with indifference The discipline of architecture values the image of the new over the lived in the photogenic empty and stark building over a messy and labored one But the fact is homes need to be cleaned and buildings and cities need to be maintained and architecture no matter its form cannot escape from such realities In Maintenance Architecture Hilary Sample offers an inventive examination of the architectural significance of maintenance through a series of short texts and images about specific buildings materials and projects Although architects have seldom choose to represent maintenance imagining their work only from conception to realization artists have long explored subjects of endurance and permanence in iconic architecture Sample explores a range of art projects by artists including Gordon Matta Clark Jeff Wall and Mierle Laderman Ukeles to recast the problem of maintenance for architecture How might architectural design and discourse change as a building cycle expands to include post occupancy Sample looks particularly at the private home exhibition pavilion and high rise urban building giving special attention to buildings constructed with novel and developing materials technologies and precise detailing in relation to endurance These include Buckminster Fuller s Dymaxion House 1929 the Lever House 1952 the U S Steel Building 1971 and the O 14 2010 She considers the iconography of skyscrapers maintenance workforces both public and private labor saving technology and devices and contemporary architectural projects and preservation techniques that encompass the afterlife of buildings A selection of artworks make the usually invisible aspects of maintenance visible from Martha Rosler s Cleaning the Drapes to Inigo Manglano Ovalle s The Kiss 2000 Architects Aisha Hasanovic,2006 Doctor Haydock the resident GP of St Mary Mead hopes to cheer up Miss Marple as she recovers from the flu with a little story The tale revolves around the return of the prodigal son of Major Laxton the devilishly handsome Harry Laxton Harry after leading a life of childish indiscretions and falling head over heels for the village tobacconist s daughter has made good and returned to lay claim to his tumbling childhood home and introduce the village to his beautiful new wife But the villagers are prone to gossip about young Harry s past and one person in particular cannot forgive him for tearing down the old house Will Miss Marple s acumen be up to the task of solving the story Harvard Design Magazine ,2005 Rem Koolhaas/OMA Roberto Gargiani,2006 A + U, architecture and urbanism ,2006 Encyclopedia of Twentieth Century Architecture R. Stephen Sennott,2004 For more information including the introduction a full list of entries and contributors a generous selection of sample pages and more visit the Encyclopedia of 20th Century Architecture website Focusing on architecture from all regions of the world this three volume set profiles the twentieth century s vast chronicle of architectural achievements both within and well beyond the theoretical confines of modernism Unlike existing works this encyclopedia examines the complexities of rapidly changing global conditions that have dispersed modern architectural types movements styles and building practices across traditional geographic and cultural boundaries FILMIC SPACE

Christopher Garrett May, 2005 The Architectural Review, 2005 Berlin Duane Philips, Alexandra Geyer, 2003-07-31 The first edition of this book described a city in the early stages of transformation following the demise of the Wall and reunification Berlin was then the largest building site in Europe and the centre of an international debate on urban development The world's leading architects among them Jean Nouvel Norman Foster Josef Kleihues Rem Koolhaas Frank Gehry Hans Kollhoff Moore Ruble Yudell Dominique Perrault Richard Rogers Renzo Piano and Shin Takamatsu were queuing up to leave their mark on the place This edition looks at the quality of the results with projects including the restoration of the Reichstag a department store by Nouvel the finished Jewish Museum by Daniel Libeskind the GSW building by Sauerbruch Hutton Leon Bolhage's Indian Embassy and the joint Scandinavian Embassy just two of the many interesting embassies to follow the government from Bonn to Berlin Holland Horizon, 2004 Architecture Today, 2004
