Bruegel to Rubens Desmond Shawe-Taylor, Jennifer Scott, 2007 Everyone is familiar with the Golden Age of Dutch art this is an opportunity to explore its no less glorious Flemish counterpart It is said that much of the greatest art is produced during periods of strife In the mid 16th century Flanders the United Provinces in the north modern Holland and the Spanish Netherlands in the south modern Belgium was the most sophisticated society in Europe but its learning and luxury industries were all but annihilated by the so called Dutch Revolt and by the Eighty Years War that followed 1568 1648 Two thirds of the works discussed here were painted during this turbulent period including Pieter Bruegel s Massacre of the Innocents of 1567 During the Renaissance the Low Countries attained a flawless technique of painting and the highest standards of craftsmanship This tradition survived during even the worst years of the war

Drawings from the Age of Bruegel, Rubens, and Rembrandt William W. Robinson, 2016-08-02 This superb book presents 100 notable examples from the Harvard Art Museums distinguished collection of Dutch Flemish and Netherlandish drawings from the 16th to 18th century Featuring such masters as Pieter Bruegel the Elder Peter Paul Rubens and Rembrandt van Rijn the volume showcases beautiful color illustrations accompanied by insightful commentary on prevalent styles and techniques Genres that define this artistic period landscape scenes of everyday life portraiture and still life are explored in detail The book also presents the results of new conservation and technical study including infrared analysis and scientific examinations of drawing materials This revelatory new research has allowed previously illegible underdrawings and inscriptions in many of the artworks to surface for the first time shedding light on longstanding mysteries of production and provenance

Pieter Bruegel the Elder Pieter Bruegel, 2001 Pieter Bruegel the Elder 1525 30 1569 was a remarkable draftsman and designer of prints as well as a great painter His independent drawings and designs for engravings and etchings which were carried out by the leading printmakers of his day have fascinated scholars and the general public alike since they were created They have recently been the subject of research that has given rise to a reevaluation of the parameters of Bruegel s oeuvre The new scholarship has been brought to bear in the texts of the present volume which accompanies a major exhibition of 140 of Bruegel's prints and drawings to be shown at the Museum Boijmans Van Beuningen Rotterdam from May to August 2001 and at The Metropolitan Museum of Art New York from September to December 2001. An international group of experts discusses the new Bruegel who has emerged from recent studies in essays on the artist's life, his contributions as a draftsman and as a printmaker, the survival of his art and his relationship to the humanism of his day. They also illuminate his genius in entries on all the works in the exhibition. Every work is illustrated and rich comparative illustrations are included. Provenances are

My greatest debt in the writing of this book is to my teacher Dr Ulrich Middeldorf who taught me the methodology of research in art history and who guided my studies of art theory and criticism. This study, which in an earlier form was accepted as a doctoral dissertation by the University of Chicago, was begun under Dr Middeldorf's guidance and during all stages of its preparation I benefited from his invaluable suggestions and criticism. A United States Government Grant enabled me to complete my researches on Rembrandt in the Netherlands where I studied at the Rijksuniversiteit te Utrecht with Dr J. G. van Gelder who was particularly generous with his knowledge and time. He read the manuscript and proofs and offered numerous suggestions and additions which have been of great benefit to me. Special acknowledgement is made to the Kunsthistorisch Instituut der Rijksuniversiteit te Utrecht for generously finding a place for this study in the Utrechtse Bijdragen tot de Kunstgeschiedenis. I am also much indebted to Dr H. Schulte Nordholt of the Kunsthistorisch Instituut for his valuable advice and his help in seeing the book through the press.

Jan Bruegel Teréz Gerszi, Louisa Wood Ruby, Bernadett Tóth, 2019

In 2019 we are looking back in Flanders and in Brussels at the crucial role that Pieter Bruegel the Elder played in the art historical landscape of the sixteenth century. The 450th anniversary of his death is a good moment at which to rediscover the work of Jan Bruegel the Elder. The Snijders Rockox House is therefore taking a closer look at the drawings of Jan Brueghel I 1568-1625, son of Pieter Bruegel the Elder and brother of Pieter the Younger. Together with Peter Paul Rubens, Jan was one of the most successful Flemish artists of the first quarter of the seventeenth century. He was at home in every market, an inspired painter of landscapes, seascapes, still lifes, historical themes, hunting scenes, and allegorical and mythological subjects. Jan is seen as the inventor of the floral still life, but he was also an important innovator in the depiction of landscapes in which his father's artistic legacy and his visit to Italy played no small part. The art of painting is underpinned by that of drawing, by which the artist's talent and creativity can be measured. No previous exhibition has been dedicated solely to the drawn oeuvre of Jan Brueghel I. This major event is curated by Jan Brueghel scholars Dr. Terz Gerszi and Dr. Louisa Wood Ruby, supported by Bernadett Tóth. The exhibition will feature some fifty drawings and several paintings loaned by leading institutions like the Louvre, Rijksmuseum, and British Museum.
