Dying Is No Big Deal:

Dying Is No Big Deal C. Joseph Socha, 2002-10-08 Dying Is No Big Deal is the title of one of the stories in this book an international contest winner and it titles the book The author uses a technique he calls VISUAL writing that he developed as an audio visual writer He uses a camera point of view to set scenes always aware of the picture that is registering on the readers mind Action is quick and continues like a newsreel The stories are much like video dramas Lengths are ideal for a quick read during the day or at bedtime

Dershowitz on Killing Alan Dershowitz, 2023-04-25 In Dershowitz on Killing How the Law Decides Who Shall Live and Who Shall Die Alan Dershowitz New York Times bestselling author and one of America s most respected legal scholars examines the subjects of death life and the law Alan Dershowitz has been called one of the most prominent and consistent defenders of civil liberties in America by Politico and the nation s most peripatetic civil liberties lawyer and one of its most distinguished defenders of individual rights by Newsweek His legal career as a criminal defense lawyer has been deeply involved with death and life decisions Dershowitz on Killing is a timely examination of issues and questions that are front and center in today s society Employing a philosophical moral religious and cultural lens to the legal aspects surrounding death and life Dershowitz elucidates the role of government to determine who shall live and who shall die in declaring wars ordering executions authorizing deadly force permitting or denying abortions providing or mandating vaccines controlling climate change allowing or refusing asylum for endangered migrants and other life and death rulings He notes that when the government decides these choices it is asked to do so by first determining whether a right is involved because rights trump mere interest just as constitutional restrictions trump legislative and executive actions Dershowitz on Killing asserts that the rules governing death and life decisions should reflect the irreversibility of death It is essential reading for anyone interested in or concerned about how these decisions are allocated among state and federal executive legislative and judicial private and governmental religious and secular institutions and how people in a democracy through the power of the ballot have the ultimate say in these critical decisions

Things Unseen Mark Buchanan, 2006-04-13 Blending pastoral warmth philosophical depth storytelling skill and literary craft Mark Buchanan encourages Christians to make heaven literally our fixation filling our vision gripping our heart and anchoring our hope Only then says Buchanan can we become truly fearless on this earth free from the fear of losing our life property status title or comfort free from the threat of tyrants the power of armies and the day of trouble Buchanan reawakens the instinctive yearning for things above showing that only the heavenly minded are of much earthly good
