Development CFLE Network Newsletter National Council on Family Relations Sibling relationships have a major influence on a person's development and behavior yet until now the topic has been seriously underrepresented in the professional literature Sibling Development Implications for Mental Health Practitioners addresses this gap by examining the range of developmental clinical and cultural issues related to sibling relationships It highlights positive sibling relationships as a source of strength and resilience at the other end of the spectrum it addresses sibling abuse a dangerous and underdiagnosed condition It demonstrates the crucial support that siblings can provide each other in families experiencing mental illness substance abuse divorce and other stressors It also considers issues of cultural and ethnic diversity gender disability and sexual orientation as they relate to siblings and their families Each chapter provides case studies to illustrate how theory and empirical findings can be incorporated into culturally informed treatment and offers implications for practice and future research It is an essential resource for all practitioners researchers students and educators who work with or study siblings

Key Features Examines the role of siblings as cultural educators and socializing agents Offers empirically derived treatment approaches for siblings and families Discusses lesbian gay bisexual and transgender siblings Includes case studies to demonstrate how to integrate theory and empirical findings into practice Looks at sibling dynamics in families with mental illness substance abuse and divorce as well as siblings of individuals with disabilities Discusses sibling relationships in transracial adoptive families

Living Through Loss Nancy R. Hooyman, Betty J. Kramer, 2008 Hooyman and Kramer's starting point is that loss comes in many forms and can include not only suffering the death of a person one loves but also giving birth to a child with disabilities living with chronic illness or being abused assaulted or otherwise traumatized They approach loss from the perspective of the resilience model which acknowledges the capacity of people to integrate loss into their lives and write sensitively about the role of age race culture sexual orientation gender and spirituality in a person's response to loss from publisher information

Death and Dying: Life and Living Charles A. Corr, Clyde M. Nabe, Donna M. Corr, 2008-04-10 Practical and inspiring this best selling book helps students learn to cope with encounters with death dying and bereavement The authors integrate classical and contemporary material present task based approaches for individual and family coping and include four substantial chapters devoted to death related issues faced by children adolescents adults and the elderly The text discusses a variety of cultural and religious perspectives that affect people's understandings and practices associated with such encounters The book also offers practical guidelines for constructive communication designed to encourage productive living in the face of death

Germino, Mary Pittman, 1994 Handbook of Adolescent Death and Bereavement Charles A. Corr, 1996 In this comprehensive handbook Charles Corr and David Balk improve our understanding of the challenges faced by adolescents when coping with death dying and bereavement The volume is organized into three parts Part I addresses specific issues involved in confrontations with death Part II focuses on the role of bereavement Part III explains specific therapeutic interventions for caregivers The authors introduce us to adolescence as a special time in the human life cycle a period quite separate from childhood and adulthood They establish normative adolescent life transitions explore differences among adolescents and explain developmental tasks that are typical of early middle and late adolescence BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Understanding Dying, Death, and Bereavement Michael R. Leming, George E. Dickinson, 2007 Using a social psychological approach this edition remains solidly grounded in theory and research but places greater emphasis on the individual and coping with death and dying These two well known authors and researchers integrate stimulating personal accounts throughout the text and apply concepts to specific examples that deal with cross cultural perspectives and the practical matters of death and dying The Last Dance Lynne Ann DeSpelder, Albert Lee Strickland, 1999 New edition of a basic text surveying attitudes cross cultural and historical perspectives socialization health care systems living with life threatening illness funerals and body disposition the experience of loss death in children s lives medical ethics the law suicide and concepts of i Dying, Death and Bereavement, 2000-2001 George E. Dickinson, Michael R. Leming, Alan C. Mermann, 1999-08 Dying, Death, and Bereavement George E. Dickinson, Michael R. Leming, 2006-03 Provides access to articles selected from the public press This book includes an annotated listing of selected World Wide Web sites an annotated table of contents a topic guide a general introduction overviews for each section a topical index and an instructor s resource guide with testing materials Adult Nursing , 1997 Marriages and Families Mary Ann Schwartz, Barbara Marliene Scott, 1997 Includes bibliographical references and index End of Life Issues Brian De Vries, 1999 The complexity of life is mirrored in and elaborated by the complexity of dying death and bereavement perhaps not surprising if one views life and death as complementary processes omnipresent and opposing sides of the same construct Evidence of this complexity is readily apparent in the burgeoning discourse surrounding end of life issues Hospice Concepts Shirley Ann Smith, 2000 A comprehensive yet succinct overview of hospice care The book covers everything from hospice philosophy to Medicare regulations from criteria for determining prognosis to dealing with grief and bereavement Recommendations focus on identifying and limiting futile treatments on pursuing opportunities to better understand the pathophysiology of physical and emotional symptoms in patients with life threatening illness and on providing reliable effective and humane care at this point in the normal cycle of life Ideal for orientation of new hospice or palliative care staff The book is useful for self study and group training or as a text for related college courses Chapter tests and answer keys are included in two appendixes

Readings in the Sociology of AIDS Anthony J. Lemelle, Charlene Harrington, Allen J. LeBlanc, 2000 Covering such recent developments as the founding of the American Psychology Society and the impact of connectionism the author provides a narrative history of psychology that includes the social political and philosophical contexts which have shaped psychology and which psychology has shaped in turn A full chapter on the philosophy of science and historiography as they relate to psychology completes the picture Detailed timelines appear on the end papers to further readers understanding of the historical contexts of developments in psychology Chapter ending bibliographies direct students to further reading as well as providing critical discussion of historiographic materials
