Many people have discovered creative methods to earn money using the internet. A money-making technique that is currently popular today is the monetization of YouTube channels. Whether you are a musician who wants to get some attention from music fans all over the world or a business owner who is establishing a video library for the products that you are selling, monetizing your YouTube account is a great way to build a reliable income, provided you do it correctly. There is a lot of misconception about YouTube as a social media platform. Because of the ease with which users can update and create their own content, it often seems like less of a social media network and more of a personal page. But just because you can use Facebook, Twitter, and the like to promote your video doesn't mean that YouTube isn't a viable social media platform. In fact, YouTube can be seen as the heart of the social media platforms, as its content is widely distributed throughout the other platforms. In fact, 400 tweets per minute contain a YouTube link, and YouTube's search bar is the second only after Google. YouTube has the benefit of having one of the most engaged audiences out of the social media platforms. With tweets flooding Twitter news feeds and posts cluttering Facebook feeds, it's harder than ever to reach followers on platforms. However, 85% of YouTube subscribers consider themselves regular YouTube users. It's recommended that if you do
