The Origins, Prevention and Treatment of Infant Crying and Sleeping Problems Ian St James-Roberts, 2013-07-03 Babies who cry a lot or are unsettled in the night are common sources of concern for parents and consequently costly problems for health services In this book Ian St James Roberts summarises the evidence concerning infant crying and sleeping problems to provide a new evidence based approach to these common challenges for parents and health services The book begins by distinguishing between infant and parental parts of the problems and provides guidelines for assessing each issue Topics covered include the pros and cons of infant demand versus limit setting forms of parenting causes of infant colicky crying and night waking effects of night time separations on infant attachments interventions such as swaddling herbal remedies and controlled crying Since there is now firm evidence that parents vulnerabilities and cultural backgrounds affect how problems are defined and guidance is acted upon and that parents who wish to do so can reduce infant crying and unsettled night waking social factors are considered alongside medical issues Translating research evidence into practical tools and guidance The Origins Prevention and Treatment of Infant Crying and Sleeping Problems will be essential reading for a wide range of healthcare professionals including mental health staff social workers midwives health visitors community physicians and paediatricians

Women, Children, and the Collective Face of Conflict in Europe, 1900-1950 Nupur Chaudhuri, Sandra Trudgen Dawson, 2023-10-17 Europe was in turmoil during the first half of the twentieth century The political stability that emanated from nineteenth century political liberalism began to break down reaching climaxes in the Great War the Spanish Civil War and the Second World War Revolutions in Russia and Spain threatened parliamentary governments and the Armenian genocide that began in 1915 foreshadowed the systematic destruction of European Jews in the 1930s and 1940s Dictators seized power and established authoritarian regimes that stymied democratic expression and censored the press Much of the scholarship on each of the conflicts has tended to focus on the military male and the civilian female binary Women and children experienced every conflict during this tumultuous period as civilians consumers victims exiles and combatants As histories of women and war suggest there are exciting new areas of research and scholarship that resist simplistic binaries Women were not simply civilians or victims They were actors in the minutiae of wars revolutions dictatorships and genocides Children were present in these conflicts and not invisible as many histories suggest They too were actors and often politicized by propagandist literature and sectarian education through their own experiences and the politics of their families This collection seeks to complicate the child adult distinction and examine the experiences of women and children as lenses to view a more collective face of conflict While the volume brings to attention conflicts in Europe the editors acknowledge the global ramifications of the revolutions wars and genocides as well as the multitude of individual experiences This collection seeks to expand understanding of the personal as the political in European conflicts from 1900 1950 We believe the focus on women and children offers a diverse perspective on five tumultuous decades of European
