Baby No Eyes:

Baby No-eyes Patricia Grace, 2002-07-07 This major novel merges contemporary headlines with stories of a heartfelt family history Do you hear the people calling No See there dummy you re nowhere near dead Well I don t believe you How would you know Of course I know I do I do I know all about it Tawera and his sister are inseparable in a relationship that is impossible for others to share In fact his whole whanau is bonded by secrets a genealogy stitched together by shame joy love and sometimes grief This is an account of the mysteries that operate at many levels between generations where the present is the pivot the centre of the spiral looking outward to the past and future that define it There s a way the older people have of telling a story a way where the beginning is not the beginning the end is not the end The Testimonial Uncanny Julia V. Emberley, 2014-09-30 Through the study of Indigenous literary and artistic practices from Canada Australia New Zealand and the United States Julia V Emberley examines the ways Indigenous storytelling discloses and repairs the traumatic impact of social violence in settler colonial nations She focuses on Indigenous storytelling in a range of cultural practices including novels plays performances media reports Internet museum exhibits and graphic novels In response to historical trauma such as that experienced at Indian residential schools as well as present day violence against Indigenous bodies and land Indigenous storytellers make use of Indigenous spirituality and the sacred to inform an ethics of hospitality They provide uncanny configurations of political and social kinships between people between the past and the present and between the animate and inanimate This book introduces readers to cultural practices and theoretical texts concerned with bringing Indigenous epistemologies to the discussion of trauma and colonial violence Bodies and Voices, 2008-01-01 A wide ranging collection of essays centred on readings of the body in contemporary literary and socio anthropological discourse from slavery and rape to female genital mutilation from clothing ocular pornography voice deformation and transmutation to the imprisoned dismembered remembered abducted or ghostly body in Africa Australasia and the Pacific Canada the Caribbean Great Britain and Eire Narrating Indigenous Modernities Michaela Moura-Koçoğlu, 2011 Preliminary Material Things are not exactly black or white in Aotearoa The Many Facets of Kiwi Identity Fragmentation Reconsidered Transcultural Identities in the Making Narratives of Be Longing Mori Literary Voices Advancing Narratives of Un Belonging Unmasking Cleavage Cleaving to Identities Transcultural Readings Recombining Repertoires Navigating Transcultural Currents Stories of Indigenous Modernities Works Cited Index From Silence to Voice Paola Della Valle, 2010 The first comprehensive history of how Maori have emerged from the silence of depictions by European writers to claim their own literary voice with a focus on Patricia Grace and Witi Ihimaera The Politics of English as a World Language Christian Mair, 2003 The complex politics of English as a world language provides the backdrop both for linguistic studies of varieties of English around the world and for postcolonial literary criticism The present volume offers contributions from linguists and literary scholars that explore this common ground in a spirit of open interdisciplinary dialogue Leading authorities assess the state of the art to suggest directions for further research with substantial case studies ranging over a wide variety of topics from the legitimacy of language norms of lingua franca communication to the recognition of newer post colonial varieties of English in the online OED Four regional sections treat the Caribbean including the diaspora Africa the Indian subcontinent and Australasia and the Pacific Rim Each section maintains a careful balance between linguistics and literature and external and indigenous perspectives on issues The book is the most balanced complete and up to date treatment of the topic to date
