Virginia Wimperis,2024-11-15 Originally published in 1960 when every twentieth child in this country was born illegitimate every eighth was conceived outside marriage every fourth mother conceived her first born before her wedding day and among the children below school leaving age over half a million were illegitimate figures that were paralleled in many countries of Europe and the Commonwealth at the time Who are the parents of these children Why do they not marry How many of the fathers are known and how many of them know or help to maintain their children What legal pressure can be brought upon the parents and how easily can payment be evaded What assistance does the State or do the voluntary agencies give to these young families here or in other countries As the children grow up what happens to them How many are adopted how many pass into public care and why How many appear before the courts What special personal difficulties do they have These and a host of other questions are fully explored for the first time in this book which at the time would be greeted with equal interest by social workers here and abroad and be the general reader The English problems are viewed in relation to the various solutions adopted by other countries and some of these the Russian German Norwegian Swedish and Danish are discussed at length The book contains two full length stories told by unmarried mothers one a nurse and the other a teacher in their own words From a very different world today this reissue can be read and understood in its historical context This book is a re issue originally published in 1960 The language used and views portrayed are a reflection of its era and no offence is meant by the Publishers to any reader by this re publication Nervous and Backward Children Amelia Henderson,1920 Hide and Seek Virginia L. Blum,1995 In response to widespread cultural fantasies about the child including childhood innocence the child as origin of the adult the fetal emergence of subjectivity and the inner child movement Hide and Seek examines representations of the child in fiction psychoanalysis and popular culture Concentrating on the go between function of the child in nineteenth and twentieth century American and British fiction Virginia Blum shows how selected children in the works of L P Hartley Charles Dickens Henry James and Vladimir Nabokov were actually fictional messengers who ultimately were unsuccessful at reconciling impasses in the adult world Throughout her book Blum draws on pop images of real and fictional children ranging from the Baby Jessica case in which the idea of real paternity and family bonds comes to the mythic fore to the film Home Alone in which the abandoned child becomes protector of his family s hearth and home Hide and Seek raises provocative questions about the ways in which our culture fetishizes the idea of the child at the same time that we treat with comparative indifference the conditions under which many real children actually live A work of striking originality and consistent intellectual honesty forcing us into genuinely profound and darkly uncomfortable areas of speculation James R Kincaid author of Child Loving The Erotic Child and Victorian Culture The Backward Child Barbara Spofford Morgan,1914 Backward Children Arthur Holmes,1915 The Mothers' Manual Emelyn Lincoln Collidge,1905 The Backward Child Cyril Burt,1950 The Mother and Her Child William Samuel Sadler,Lena Kellogg Sadler,1916 Parliamentary Papers Great Britain.
