Abidjan USA Daniel B. Reed, 2016-09-24 Studies of four musicians and a broader discussion about diaspora and migration provides an important study of African music in the United States Alex Perullo author of Live from Dar es Salaam Daniel B Reed integrates individual stories with the study of performance to understand the forces of diaspora and mobility in the lives of musicians dancers and mask performers originally from Cote d'Ivoire who now live in the United States Through the lives of four Ivorian performers Reed finds that dance and music being transportable media serve as effective ways to understand individual migrants in the world today As members of an immigrant community who are geographically dispersed these performers are unmoored from their place of origin and yet deeply engaged in presenting their symbolic roots to North American audiences By looking at performance Reed shows how translocation has led to transformations on stage but he is also sensitive to how performance acts as a way to reinforce and maintain community Abidjan USA provides a multifaceted view of community that is at once local national and international and where identity is central but transportable fluid and adaptable Daniel B Reed's scholarship is solid and his writing style is thoroughly engaging The topic is novel there are fascinating twists and turns throughout Eric Charry editor of Hip Hop Africa This study's attention to the intersection of lived experiences with wider historical events and social formations as well as the author's careful analysis of Ivorian ballet and the dances and drum rhythms that constitute the genre make Abidjan USA an important intervention in ethnomusicology and folklore Journal of American Folklore A cruise on Friesland 'broads'. Reginald Thomas D. Brougham
