Verification of Income for Home Loan

Body:
I am writing to provide verification of income to my brother, Thomas Gray, who is applying for a mortgage loan through Community Savings Bank. As a family member, we have been closely involved in Thomas's employment, and can vouch for the accuracy of the income reported on his tax returns.

Thomas has been self-employed as a professional consultant since 2015, reporting an annual net profit of approximately $150,000. Over the last three years, his average annual net profit has been around $120,000. His gross monthly income exceeds our local government's median household income, and his gross monthly income average approximates $10,000.

In addition to his consulting work, Thomas also owns and manages a chain of pet stores, which continues to supply financial proof of income. His combined annual income from both

Verification of Income for Rental Application

Body:
I am writing to provide the necessary verification of my income as requested with the apartment application for your client. As an apartment landlord, I understand the importance of providing financial stability and reliability.

I am currently employing Tom Anderson, who is a Senior Finance Engineer. I have been with the company for over five years, which speaks to my stable employment history. My current annual gross salary is $180,000, which is sufficient to comfortably cover each month's approximate $2,000 rental amount.

Additionally, I receive an annual performance bonus, which for the last year was $20,000. This bonus is also highly based on my performance and the company's overall profitability and has been a consistent part of my income.
