

THE CRYING BABY DILEMMA

- It is wartime, and you and some of your fellow villagers are hiding from enemy soldiers in a basement. Your baby starts to cry, and you cover your baby's mouth to block the sound.
- If you remove your hand, your baby will cry loudly, the soldiers will hear, and they will find you and the others and kill everyone they find, including you and your baby.

Reason and Emotion in International Ethics Renée Jeffery,2014-06-12 The study of international ethics is marked by an overwhelming bias towards reasoned reflection at the expense of emotionally driven moral deliberation For rationalist cosmopolitans in particular reason alone provides the means by which we can arrive at the truly impartial moral judgments a cosmopolitan ethic demands However are the emotions as irrational selfish and partial as most rationalist cosmopolitans would have us believe By re examining the central claims of the eighteenth century moral sentiment theorists in light of cutting edge discoveries in the fields of neuroscience and psychology Ren e Jeffery argues that the dominance of rationalism and marginalisation of emotions from theories of global ethics cannot be justified In its place she develops a sentimentalist cosmopolitan ethic that does not simply provide a framework for identifying injustices and prescribing how we ought to respond to them but which actually motivates action in response to international injustices such as global poverty The Housewife, 1893 The Moral Psychology of Regret Anna Gotlib, 2019-10-21 What kind of an emotion is regret What difference does it make whether how and why we experience it and how does this experience shape our current and future thoughts decisions goals Under what conditions is regret appropriate Is it always one kind of experience or does it vary based on who is doing the regretting and why How is regret different from other backward looking emotions In The Moral Psychology of Regret scholars from several disciplines including philosophy gender studies disability studies law and neuroscience come together to address these and other questions related to this ubiquitous emotion that so many of us seem to dread And while regret has been somewhat under theorized as a subject worthy of serious and careful attention this volume is offered with the intent of expanding the discourse on regret as an emotion of great moral significance that underwrites how we understand ourselves and each other Good Housekeeping, 1887 Moral Psychology Thomas Nadelhoffer, Eddy Nahmias, Shaun Nichols, 2010-10-18 Moral Psychology Historical and Contemporary Readings is the first book to bring together the most significant contemporary and historical works on the topic from both philosophy and psychology Provides a comprehensive introduction to moral psychology which is the study of psychological mechanisms and processes underlying ethics and morality Unique in bringing together contemporary texts by philosophers psychologists and other cognitive scientists with foundational works from both philosophy and psychology Approaches moral psychology from an empirically informed perspective Explores a wide range of topics from passion and altruism to virtue and responsibility Editorial introductions to each section explain the background of and connections between the selections Parents Book for Your Baby's First Year Maja Bernath, 1983 The first year of your baby's life is a time of change for him and for you Now with this warm and comprehensive guide you'll gain a special understanding of your baby and learn to care for her with confidence and a minimum of fuss For each stage of development you'll learn how your baby experiences the world what he sees feels hears and smells Here are practical easy to follow daily routines of care from bathing to dressing to outings from feeding to doctor visits to finding outside help Special features include choosing a pediatrician medicine cabinet essentials recommended toys and equipment everything to make this first year of life a loving special time for your baby and for you Foreword by Richard I Feinbloom M D Poems from Yare Augusta Cordelia Davis, 1890 Book Chat William George Jordan, Adr Schade van Westrum, 1886 How a Baby Changed My Life, 1982 Good Housekeeping Magazine, 1887

The Bachelor's Baby Dilemma Sheri WhiteFeather, 2015-03-01 Reunited And Reluctant Commitment was always a dirty word for Tanner Quinn He'd seen too much loss growing up But now his troubled sister was expecting a baby and he had to make a home for her child leading him to his high school girlfriend's doorstep of all places Candy McCall was still as sweet as her name and her house was perfect for his purposes even if she did remind him of a time he'd spent much of his adult life wanting to forget Barely making ends meet Candy saw Tanner's offer to buy her house as a godsend But when he asked her to be the nanny to his niece the arrangement quickly became too close for comfort Would just one kiss remind them both of what they once were to each other and might just be again Good Health ,1906 The Natural History of the Child Courtenay Frederic William Dunn,1920
