

THE MOST POPULAR

Baby Names for Girls by Country

Choosing the right name to bestow on a bouncing baby girl is no easy feat. Some might look to monikers (or Monicas) out in the world for inspiration — so what are the most popular names for baby girls?

Olivia, meaning olive tree or “peace,” takes the top spot in the U.S. and five other countries, including the UK and Canada. Other names ending in -a — like Sofia, variations of which are popular in nine countries — appear frequently on our map. According to The Atlantic, names were traditionally feminized in Latin by changing the ending to an -a, and derivatives of those names are still around today.
