Baby Precious Always Shines Kay Turner, 2000-10-17 Off and on during the entire period they were together Gertrude Stein and Alice B Toklas wrote each other little love notes Calling her wifey and most often addressing her as baby precious Stein scribbled her love for Toklas in quick moments of unself conscious desire And on occasion Toklas penned or typed letters back to her husband Because the couple was virtually inseparable the notes were written and exchanged at home Baby Precious Always Shines presents selections from this previously unpublished correspondence In first person documentation in direct address these brief mantralike enticements tender beseeching funny and game sexually charged and sincere quotidian and queer disclose the intimacies of a deeply committed very rare and at the same time very ordinary marriage between two of the twentieth century s most famous women Toklas called their notes a beautiful form of literature They are indeed and when pieced together they create a tantalizing mosaic a portrait of a marriage that helped shape the course of modernism and modern lesbianism

The Outside Thing Hannah Roche, 2019-05-28 In a lecture delivered before the University of Oxford s Anglo French Society in 1936 Gertrude Stein described romance as the outside thing that is always a thing to be felt inside Hannah Roche takes Stein s definition as a principle for the reinterpretation of three major modernist lesbian writers showing how literary and affective romance played a crucial yet overlooked role in the works of Stein Radclyffe Hall and Djuna Barnes The Outside Thing offers original readings of both canonical and peripheral texts including Stein s first novel Q E D Things As They Are Hall s Adam s Breed and The Well of Loneliness and Barnes s early writing alongside Nightwood Is there an inside space for lesbian writing or must it always seek refuge elsewhere Crossing established lines of demarcation between the in and the out the real and the romantic and the Victorian and the modernist The Outside Thing presents romance as a heterosexual plot upon which lesbian writers willfully set up camp These writers boldly adopted and adapted the romance genre Roche argues as a means of staking a queer claim on a heteronormative institution Refusing to submit or surrender to the straight traditions of the romance plot they turned the rules to their advantage Drawing upon extensive archival research The Outside Thing is a significant rethinking of the interconnections between queer writing lesbian living and literary modernism

The Suicidal State Madoka Kishi, Professional in Residence Department of English Madoka Kishi, 2024 Through mapping the entwinement between the turn of the century nativist discourse race suicide and the frequent representation of suicide in Progressive Era literature The Suicidal State asks what kind of agency subjectivity and intimacies suicide could forge in its undoing of the selfhood Prefiguring the twenty first century white nationalist discourse replacement theory race suicide imagined the white race s declining birthrate as a sign of its imminent extinction sparking anti immigrant sentiment and legislation Suicidal figures in period literature this book argues symptomatically enact race suicide to short circuit the imperatives of racial reproduction and self preservation instead gesturing toward new erotic relationalities and pleasures

expansive darkly funny and deeply personal reflection on the reality of living with and dying from metastatic breast cancer Deena stepped out of the shower and opened her towel in the steam Does my breast look weird These words irrevocably change the lives of writer Ariel Gore and her wife As they descend into a world of doctors and tests medications and insurance sickness and treatments and hope and pain and more they discover just how little they truly knew despite the awareness campaigns and hyper visible pink ribbons about the reality of breast cancer Over the four years following Deena's terminal diagnosis Gore does what she always does no matter how difficult or personal the subject she writes about it With keen insights empathy and humor Ariel Gore braids together the story of Deena's experience her own role as a caretaker narratives from others living with breast cancer literary reflections on illness and reportage on the history of breast cancer and the 200 billion industry that capitalizes on and profits from breast cancer screenings and treatments Rehearsals for Dying investigates and challenges everything we think we know about breast cancer It goes beyond awareness to knowledge presenting a rich nuanced heartbreaking and hopeful portrait of what it is to be diagnosed with treat and live with breast cancer in the twenty first century Stitch, Unstitch Kristin Grogan, 2025-08-26 The labor of literature is often thought of as a specialized craft distinct from everyday work In Stitch Unstitch Kristin Grogan traces an alternative vision of writing and the writer arguing that modernist poetry was deeply shaped by ordinary labor and the people who performed it This relationship provoked powerful political and aesthetic experiments and allowed modernist poets to imagine ways of life beyond the demand to earn a living Poetic form Grogan shows offers ways to reflect on the meaning and worth of labor particularly types of gendered labor that are typically unseen and undervalued Her fine grained readings locate modernist poetry within sites of social reproduction factory work craft labor and other forms of manual labor placing literary texts alongside objects such as constructivist posters and set design household notes and homemade books Grogan considers Ezra Pound's ideology of craft and artisanal labor Lola Ridge's immersion in the New York garment industry Langston Hughes's encounter with Soviet workers theater Gertrude Stein's gendered and queer domestic labors and Lorine Niedecker's employment as a hospital cleaner Blending Marxist and feminist theory with attentive close readings Stitch Unstitch is a revelatory materialist account of the values of poetry The Poetics of Waste C. Schmidt, 2014-06-05 Modernist debates about waste both aesthetic and economic often express biases against gender and sexual errancy The Poetics of Waste looks at writers and artists who resist this ideology and respond by developing an excessive poetics The Advocate, 2000-02-29 The Advocate is a lesbian gay bisexual transgender LGBT monthly newsmagazine Established in 1967 it is the oldest continuing LGBT publication in the United States Literary Couples and 20th-Century Life Writing Janine Utell, 2019-11-14 Exposing how modernist and late modernist writers tell the stories of their intimate relationships though life writing this book engages with the process by which these authors become subjects to a significant other a change that subsequently becomes narrative within their works Looking specifically at partners in a couple Janine Utell focuses on such literary pairings as Virginia and Leonard Woolf Gertrude Stein and Alice B Toklas Sylvia Townsend Warner and Valentine Ackland Christopher Isherwood and Don Bachardy and Sylvia Plath and Ted Hughes Utell draws on the latest work in narrative theory and the study of intimacy and affects to shed light on the ethics of reading relationships in the modern period Focusing on a range of genres and media from memoir through documentary film to comics this book demonstrates that stories are essential for our thinking of love desire and sexuality Feminist Collections ,2000 The Advocate ,2000 Très Complémentaires Ethel Mars,2000 The Arizona Quarterly ,2014 Girlfriends ,1999 Syn/aesthetics Rebecca L. Scherr,2005 Gertrude Stein Lucy Daniel,2009-09-15 You are of course never yourself wrote Gertrude Stein in one of her famously witty autobiographies In this book Lucy Daniel reveals the many selves that composed Stein s inspiring and captivating life Though American Stein has been celebrated as the embodiment of Left Bank bohemia She was a patron of modern art and writing as a gay icon and the hostess of perhaps the most famous salon of modern times with Picasso Matisse Hemingway and Pound among her friends and associates Yet despite an immense and varied body of work and a writing life that spanned 50 years she remains one of the most recognizable and yet least known of the twentieth century s major literary figures Daniel shows how the legend of Gertrude Stein was created both by Stein herself and her admirers exploring her works her many notable portraits and her own entertaining anecdotes From early efforts in automatic writing to late experiments in the art of autobiography Daniel examines Stein s continued stylistic experimentation as well as her involvement with turn of the century feminism and psychology her 40 year relationship with Alice B Toklas the cultural impact of her salon in the Parisian expat scene and the controversy surrounding her life in occupied France during the Second World War A fresh and readable presentation of this major American writer Gertrude Stein gives much needed attention to the continuing significance and influence of Stein s work Book Jacket Book Review Index ,2003 Vols 8 10 of the 1965 1984 master cumulation constitute a title index Southwestern American Literature ,2000 Feminist Periodicals ,1999 In Love and Struggle Margaretta Jolly,2008 Margaretta Jolly provides the first cultural study of these letters charting the evolution of feminist political consciousness from the height of the women s movement to today s e mail networks Jolly uncovers the passionate contradictory emotions of both politics and letter writing and sets out the theory behind them as a fragile yet persistent ideal of care ethics women s love and epistolary art She follows several compelling feminist relationships sustained through writing and confronts the mixed messages of the open letter which complicated political relations between women such as Audre Lorde s Open Letter to Mary Daly which called out white feminists for their implicit racism The Publishers Weekly ,1999
