Closing the Gap: the Scientific Case for the Bach Flower Remedies Christopher Hoyt,2016-08-17 This groundbreaking work has the potential to totally reshape how the Bach Flower Remedies are viewed by not only Bach practitioners but by scientists and the medical establishment alike This is the first comprehensive examination of the Bach Remedy system in light of the recent discoveries of science concerning mind body health connections to show that Bach system indeed has merit potentially in spades In Closing The Gap leading Bach Flower Remedy practitioner and author Christopher Hoyt examines the various scientifically recognized ways that our mind can affect our health and vice versa along with the mental states that seem to negatively or positively affect our health all from a Bach Remedy perspective He makes a point of showcasing how intimately related the two approaches to health really are and how the science of mind body medicine seems to largely be in line with what Dr Bach claimed 80 years ago potentially vindicating Dr Bach s healing system at long last In fact recent medical discoveries seem to be pointing to a glorious future for mind body medicine in which health is sustained and created through use of cultivating or eliminating the same sorts of mental outlooks and emotions Dr Bach identified long ago In this book you will be clearly introduced to the science of mind body medicine in an easily accessible way yet to a sufficient depth of understanding that you will be able to easily grasp the large body of science that has been built up on the subject science that just happens to support Dr Bach s very beliefs In addition this work includes a closer look at the Bach Remedies themselves to show that they may in fact be working conventionally as opposed to energetically as popularly believed by practitioners and skeptics alike The author even goes so far to propose a physiological mechanism through which they could produce the amazing healing effects reported by users throughout the years Closing The Gap also includes a thorough review of all of the Bach Remedy scientific studies that have been conducted including the most recent study that seems to show they can indeed have a profound healing effect on the body In fact if the science is to be believed the Bach Remedies potentially represent the next step in the evolution of mind body medicine and therefore constitute the most cutting edge of mind body therapies If you are skeptical of the Bach Remedies or think they couldn t work because they must conflict with the science that has been done it s probably time to think again
