Arkansas County Moonshine Wars T. Leon Doyle, 2012-10-05 Larry Jack arrives home from the Korean War with a divorce and no prospects for a future he now assumes will be lonely As luck would have it however with his discharge paper still in hand Larry Jack is offered the job of a lifetimer as a revenuer in his homeland of Arkansas County Arkansas He is placed in charge of investigating bootleggers and possible drug dealers in the region and even though he is a native he does not receive the warmest of welcomes Larry Jack's Arkansas is a bit wild there are vicious feuds rough and tumble fighting in the honky tonks and shootouts on the town square Despite their personal differences though the people of the bayou have one thing in common distaste for authority figures which makes his job difficult His life gets even more interesting when he encounters an old flame by the name of Mary Ann Meanwhile it soon becomes apparent in his investigation that Larry Jack isn't just dealing with local crooks A crime syndicate is behind the drug dealing and in order to convict Larry Jack will have to risk his own life against not only guns but also water moccasins alligators and bears With Mary Ann at his side he might be able to navigate the bayou but how will he bring these criminals to justice without ending up with a bullet in the back
