Back To The Drawing Board Africancanadian Feminisms:

Back to the Drawing Board Njoki Nathani Wane, Katerina Deliovsky, Erica Lawson, 2002 What are the fundamental tenets of African Canadian feminism What are the elements of feminist theory that have contributed to African Canadian feminist thought African American feminists have influenced thinking and writing in Canada As well Black Canadian feminists have published on a wide range of issues relating to Black women s lives history and experience Back to the Drawing Board builds on this existing literature and maps out a new space in which to articulate a stronger vision of African Canadian feminism While the essays focus on key concepts and debates that underlie Black feminist theory and challenge the dominant structures that continue to exclude Black women the objective is to bring the plurality of African Canadian women s voices and experiences into the centre of analysis To accomplish this the editors draw on different theories and insights The fourteen contributors come from different race and gender backgrounds and are committed to creating an empowering space where Black women can speak to and about each other and find a home for their words They write on the subjects of Black Canadian feminist thought African Canadian feminist historiography Black feminist political activism white mainstream feminism as a liberatory movement Black women in the white feminism and anti racist education Native education and spirituality that form and shape identity how the media and law construct Black identity the social consequences of interracial relationships Includes a Glossary Bibliography and Index Back to the Drawing Board initiates a dialogue critical for defining feminisms that validate the contributions and experiences of African Canadian women African Canadian Leadership Tamari Kitossa, Erica S. Lawson, Philip S.S. Howard, 2019-07-15 Challenging the myth of African Canadian leadership in crisis this book opens a broad vista of inquiry into the many and dynamic ways leadership practices occur in Black Canadian communities Exploring topics including Black women s contributions to African Canadian communities the Black Lives Matter movement Black LGBTQ HIV AIDS advocacy motherhood and grieving mentoring and anti racism contributors appraise the complex history and contemporary reality of blackness and leadership in Canada With Canada as a complex site of Black diasporas contributors offer an account of multiple forms of leadership and suggest that through surveillance and disruption practices of self determined Black leadership are incompatible with and threatening to White structures of power in Canada As a whole African Canadian Leadership offers perspectives that are complex non aligned and in critical conversation about class gender sexuality and the politics of African Canadian communities Facilitating Visual Socialities Casey Burkholder, Joshua Schwab-Cartas, Funké Aladejebi, 2023-05-23 This edited collection seeks to enrich the dialogue about the expansive possibilities of visual sociological research facilitation Although facilitating ethical research has long been identified within medical research literatures there is a dearth of distinct perspectives and voices in academic theorizing when it comes to facilitating ethical research For example how can researchers learn and incorporate community created approaches to facilitation into their visual research approaches Although ethics positionality and reflexivity remain important components of visual research the authors argue that the incremental decisions made in real time by research facilitators within the process of visual research is currently under theorized This edited collection seeks to discuss how thinking about facilitation in a more critical and nuanced manner as well as thinking through the kinds of relations problems and local changes that happen within a project can help visual sociological researchers move towards more equitable research practices

Ruptures: Anti-colonial & Anti-racist Feminist Theorizing Njoki Wane, Jennifer Jagire, Zahra Murad, 2014-02-07 This book provides tools and theoretical frameworks to make sense of how the world is regulated governed controlled with regard to the exclusivity of certain members of the society and in particular women from marginalized groups This book therefore engages readers by asking thought provoking questions to interrogate issues of marginality and oppression in society The book as a collective provides an intellectual discourse on feminism anticolonial thought and anti racism This book is a must read for scholars activists theorists and researchers who are seeking to rupture the borders of confinement and move beyond the imaginary margins created by organized structures in society

Counternarratives of Pain and Suffering as Critical Pedagogy Ardavan Eizadirad, Andrew Campbell, Steve Sider, 2022-07-04 Foregrounding diverse lived experiences and non dominant forms of knowledge this edited volume showcases ways in which narrating and sharing stories of pain and suffering can be engaged as critical pedagogy to challenge oppression and inequity in educational contexts The volume illustrates the need to consider both the act of narrating and the experience of bearing witness to narration to harness the full transformative potentials of counternarratives in disrupting oppressive practices Chapters are divided into three parts Telling and Reliving Trauma as Pedagogy Pedagogies of Overcoming Silence and Forgetting as Pedagogy illustrating a range of relational pedagogical and methodological approaches including journaling poetry and arts based narrative inquiry The authors make the argument that the language of pain and suffering is universal hence its potential as critical pedagogy for transformative and therapeutic teaching and learning Readers are encouraged to reflect on their own lived experiences to constructively engage with their pain suffering and trauma Focusing on trauma informed non hegemonic storytelling and transformative pedagogies this volume will be of interest to students faculty scholars and community members with an interest in advancing anti oppressive and social justice education

Facilitating Community Research for Social Change Casey Burkholder, Funké Aladejebi, Joshua Schwab-Cartas, 2022-03-31 Facilitating Community Research for Social Change asks what does ethical research facilitation look like in projects that seek to move toward social change How can scholars weave political and social justice through multiple levels of the research process This edited collection presents chapters that investigate research facilitation in ways that specifically attempt to disrupt and challenge anti Indigenous and anti Black racism ableism homophobia transphobia patriarchy and sexism to work toward social change It also explores what it means to develop facilitation practices across multiple contexts and research settings including specific facilitation methods considered by researchers working with visual and community based methods with Black Indigenous and racialized communities The complexities of how scholars negotiate decisions within their research with people and communities have an effect not only on how researchers construct their participants and communities but also on the overall purpose of projects the ways their projects are shared and disseminated and what is learned in the doing of facilitation This book will be of great interest to both emerging and established researchers working within the social sciences It specifically attends to diverse fields within the social sciences that include health media studies environmental studies social work sociology education participatory visual research methodologies as well as the evolving field of digital humanities

The Poetics of Anti-racism Meredith Lordan, 2006 The sense of white entitlement is seen through discourses of what about us when issues of race and equity are raised in the classrooms of the dominant Even when race issues are grudgingly acknowledged there is the politics of moral distancing apparent in the dominant body playing the race card through evocations of merit excellence and meritocracy This book extends the discussion of anti racism to highlight linguistic racism and more specifically the centrality of language in the discourse and poetics of anti racism The contributors discuss how language is used and how especially in that usage race and racism are expressed in everyday practice The authors invite us to join the journey of real meaningful change through the poetics of words and action thereby giving voice to the possibilities of change Back cover

Theorizing Empowerment Njoki Nathani Wane, Notisha Massaquoi, 2007 Theorizing Empowerment Canadian Perspectives on Black Feminist Thought is a collection of articles by Black Canadian feminists centralizing the ways in which Black femininity and Black women s experiences are integral to understanding political and social frameworks in Canada What does Black feminist thought mean to Black Canadian feminists in the Diaspora What does it mean to have a feminist practice which speaks to Black women in Canada In exploring this question this anthology collects new ideas and thoughts on the place of Black women s politics in Canada combining the work of new upcoming and established names in Black Canadian feminist studies

Beyond the Canebrakes Emily Allen Williams, 2008 15 essays and two interviews that examine the work of West Indian writers living in Canada The authors of these essays and interviews dissect issues of history gender power identity and levels of discourse in moving scholars researchers and students into arenas of study and critique of the West Indian Woman writer residing in Canada

Branding Miss G Michelle Miller, 2008 Many feminist organizations know just how hard it is to gain media attention for their cause This was not a surprise to members of the Miss G ___ Project for Equity in Education when they began to lobby the provincial government to include women s studies in Ontario high schools To overcome this obstacle the Miss G ___ Project has used creative eye catching images to brand its members as third wave activists who are approachable more ironically feminine than feminist catching the attention of a number of mainstream newspapers and magazines Yet is this the best approach for a feminist organization to take In this original and important case study Michelle Miller takes a critical look at the pros and cons of Miss G__ s media strategies She lauds the overall success of the group but argues that it is time for Miss G__ to rebrand its image and build its own media networks by using the alternative press and popular technology In doing so the Project can achieve its goal while aligning its vision with its politics

Feminist Studies ,2003 Hecate ,2004 Crash Politics and Antiracism Philip S. S. Howard,George Jerry Sefa Dei,2008 Counterpoints publishes the most compelling and imaginative books being written in education today Grounded on the theoretical advances in criticalism feminism and postmodernism in the last two decades of the twentieth century Counterpoints engages the meaning of these innovations in various forms of educational expression Committed to the proposition that theoretical literature should be accessible to a variety of audiences the series insists that its authors avoid esoteric and jargonistic languages that transform educational scholarship into an elite discourse for the initiated

G.K. Hall Interdisciplinary Bibliographic Guide to Black Studies Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture,2003 Interrogating Race and Racism Vijay Agnew,2007-08-04 It is a common misconception that in the contemporary world racism has been somehow defeated pushed to the boundaries of acceptable social behaviour In fact racism has taken on a subtler guise in the ways it is expressed This ambiguity has made racism more insidious than it once was Interrogating Race and Racism examines the subject of racism with a view to uncovering the many ways in which it exists today As a subject with so many permutations racism is necessarily examined from a multidisciplinary perspective in this collection featuring authors from a variety of backgrounds Among the specific topics discussed are border politics and the search for asylum exclusionary policies and the struggle for substantive citizenship The collection also features extended discussion of racism in the workplace an illuminating and important sequence that reveals the institutionalization of racist hiring procedures despite legislation to curb such practices With the heightening of tensions in the post 9 11 period and a resurgence of racist attitudes taking place Interrogating Race and Racism is a timely analysis of cultural alienation and the ways in which it impacts upon our lives
