Backbench Opinion In The House Of Commons 1945 1955:

Backbench Opinion in the House of Commons, 1945-55 Hugh Berrington,1973 Backbench Debate within the Conservative Party and its Influence on British Foreign Policy, 1948-57 S. Onslow,1997-03-17 This book examines Conservative backbench debate on European integration and British relations in the Middle East between 1948 and 1957 In seeking to compare the impact of a loose affiliation of Conservative MPs an organized faction of longstanding and an ad hoc pressure group the text concentrates upon the Europeanists the Suez Group and the Anti Suez Group and considers their attempts to influence British foreign policy using interviews with former parliamentarians and contemporary sources published and unpublished Backbench Opinion in the House of Commons, 1955-59 Samuel Edward Finer,1961 Party, Parliament and Personality Peter Jones,2002-11-01 This is a collection of essays on political psychology commissioned to commemorate the retirement of Hugh Berrington and to celebrate his contribution to the field the authors comprise some of the best known names in Political Science in the UK including Ivor Crewe Vincent Wright David Hine and Iain McLean The central focus of the volume is British Politics but the book also contains a number of comparative chapters including David Hine s on the political psychology of corruption which focuses on Italy The book also contains theoretical chapters including Albert Weale s on the central nature of disagreement in democratic politics The bulk of the chapters are concerned with the psychology of individual political actors but there is also a chapter on the psychology of individual political theorists which focuses on Thomas Hobbes and Jean Jacques Rousseau A Bibliography of British History Keith Robbins,American Historical Association,Royal Historical Society (Great Britain),1996 Containing over 25 000 entries this unique volume will be absolutely indispensable for all those with an interest in Britain in the twentieth century Accessibly arranged by theme with helpful introductions to each chapter a huge range of topics is covered There is a comprehensive index Modern Methods of Teaching Political Science Prem Lata Sharma,2002 Parliamentary Socialisation M. Rush,P. Giddings,2011-07-26 This first book length study of the socialisation of MPs uses questionnaire data gathered over two Parliaments 1992 97 and 1997 2001 to find out how MPs learn about and what their attitudes are towards their role as a Member of Parliament It analyzes their participation in debates the use of Parliamentary Questions and committee work Politics of The Rope Neville Twitchell,2012-10-15 This illuminating broad based political and cultural study presents the definitive account of the campaign to abolish capital punishment in the period 1955 69 It comprises a work of contemporary history exploring the theme from a number of angles both pro and contra which have not been covered so extensively before From the sphere of governmental and parliamentary politics to the relevant pressure groups to the role of the mass media to the significance of the different churches and the influence of professional bodies such as those representing the police and prison officers the book skilfully identifies their interaction with one another It examines the effect on the campaign of fluctuations in public opinion and of controversial murder cases such as those of Timothy Evans

Derek Bentley Ruth Ellis and James Hanratty which in turn often informed the state of public opinion. The work sets the campaign in the context of the social and cultural ferment of the era, the advent of the permissive society and contrasts the fortunes of the movement with those of other conscience issues such as the legalisation of abortion, homosexual law reform, divorce liberalisation and the abolition of theatre censorship. It seeks to account for the success of the campaign within a relatively short time span in the face of intense public antipathy and a concerted effort by various elements of the establishment to thwart its fulfilment. It asks why the campaign succeeded when so many others facing lesser institutional obstacles failed and it asks why it succeeded when it did and in the way it did and considers whether the success of the campaign can be accounted for by the Zeitgeist. On one level it is a study of the politics of social reform but at a deeper level it is a study of the way in which social trends feed through into political action at the parliamentary level and illustrates the process of policy formation in the area of private members legislation and free votes where the party has voluntarily taken a back seat.

It not only explores the differences but also the similarities between the nations.
