The Clown of White Field & Other Stories Mona Verma, 2017. The Clown of White Fields is a collection of 7 stories set in various parts of the world, and a common thread of mysticism unites them. They are stories about children and people from small places who have a secret each. The enchanted world they live in, they are possessed by magic and the illusory world of dreams. Be it Anatoly's special powers or Siom's hatred for his step-mother, Oddvar's shame of poverty, Azec's magical circus, or Ravana's soul wanderings, they all brave the oddities as time affords them clarity and strength. The book attempts to bring back the lost era of storytelling with illusory and mystical undertones that a child's innocence craves for.
