20th European Symposium of Computer Aided Process Engineering Sauro Pierucci, G. Buzzi Ferraris, 2010-06-03
ESCAPE 20 is the most recent in a series of conferences that serves as a forum for engineers, scientists, researchers, managers and students from academia and industry to present and discuss progress being made in the area of Computer Aided Process Engineering. CAPE covers computer aided methods, algorithms and techniques related to process and product engineering. The ESCAPE 20 scientific program reflects the strategic objectives of the CAPE Working Party to check the status of historically consolidated topics by means of their industrial application and to evaluate their emerging issues. Includes a CD that contains all research papers and contributions. Features a truly international scope with guest speakers and keynote talks from leaders in science and industry. Presents papers covering the latest research, key topical areas and developments in computer aided process engineering. CAPE

The Rhetoric of Videogames as Embodied Practice Steve Holmes, 2017-09-11
The Rhetoric of Videogames as Embodied Practice offers a critical reassessment of embodiment and materiality in rhetorical considerations of videogames. Holmes argues that rhetorical and philosophical conceptions of habit offer a critical resource for describing the interplay between thinking, writing and rhetoric and embodiment. The book demonstrates how Aristotle's understanding of character, ethos, habit, hexis and nature phusis can productively connect rhetoric to what Holmes calls procedural habits, the ways in which rhetoric emerges from its interactions with the dynamic accumulation of conscious and nonconscious embodied experiences that consequently give rise to meaning, procedural subjectivity, control and communicative agency both in digital game design discourse and the activity of play.

Marketing Research Principles Kenneth E. Clow, Karen Elaine James, 2020-03-10
The third edition of Marketing Research Principles offers a strong emphasis on how to use marketing research to make better management decisions with application of marketing research to marketing and business situations. The authors focus on understanding and interpreting marketing research studies and throughout the book they integrate data analysis, interpretation, application, data presentation and decision making.

Writing and Research for Graphic Designers Steven Heller, 2013-01-18
For designers, writing and research skills are more necessary than ever before, from the basic business compositions to critical writing. In this competitive climate, designers are routinely called upon to make words about the images and designs they create for clients. Writing about design is not just trade writing but should be accessible to everyone with an interest in design. This book is a complete introductory guide to various forms of research and writing in design and how they explain visuals and can be visualized. These pages address communication on various levels and to all audiences: Designers to Designers, Designers to Clients, Designers to the Design-literate, Designers to the Design-agnostic. Being able to express the issues and concerns of the design practice demands facts, data and research. With Writing and Research for Graphic Designers, you'll learn how to turn information into a valuable asset, one of the key talents of the design researcher.
