Access To Learning For Pupils With Disabilities:

Access to Learning for Pupils with Disabilities John Cornwall,2013-10-28 First published in 1997 It is the intention of this book to provide a stimulus to further thought and investigation of the many possibilities and opportunities available for teaching pupils and students with physical disabilities and medical conditions

Measuring Access to Learning Opportunities National Research Council,Division of Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education,Committee on National Statistics,Center for Education,Committee on Improving Measures of Access to Equal Educational Opportunity,2003-06-28 Since 1968 the Elementary and Secondary School Civil Rights Compliance Report known as the E S survey has been used to gather information about possible disparities in access to learning opportunities and violations of students civil rights Thirty five years after the initiation of the E S survey large disparities remain both in educational outcomes and in access to learning opportunities and resources These disparities may reflect violations of students civil rights the failure of education policies and practices to provide students from all backgrounds with a similar educational experience or both They may also reflect the failure of schools to fully compensate for disparities and current differences in parents education income and family structure The Committee on Improving Measures of Access to Equal Educational Opportunities concludes that the E S survey continues to play an essential role in documenting these disparities and in providing information that is useful both in guiding efforts to protect students civil rights and for informing educational policy and practice The committee also concludes that the survey s usefulness and access to the survey data could be improved

Professionalisation of Students with Disabilities into the Teaching Profession in South African Higher Education Sibonokuhle Ndlovu,2024-07-15 To solve the global challenges of the present society contemporary scholarship requires that all diverse social groups are included in knowledge production through education Professionalisation is one way in which diverse social groups can engage in knowledge production in higher education While all kinds of professionalisation produce citizens who can contribute to the social political and economic development the teaching profession is foundational as most people have come through the hands of teachers from basic to higher education Teaching has been referred to as the noblest of professions because it does not only require acquisition of knowledge and skills but high levels of professionalism dignity honour and the ability to lead by example While inclusion of all diverse social groups is topical after attainment of independence in African countries largely and in South Africa particularly professionalisation of students with disabilities into the teaching profession and in settings for integrated learning has received little attention from scholars in the disability field Professionalisation of Students with Disabilities into the Teaching Profession in South African Higher Education critically reflects on what affordances and challenges face students with disabilities in professionalisation into the teaching professions and on how students are socialised to identify with the profession It does so from the lived experiences of students with disabilities the academics who teach them the support staff and the author s nuanced understanding of the professionalisation the teaching profession and transformation to include all in the South African context of higher education
