Accelerate Elementary Level:

Accelerating The Learning Of All Students Christine Finnan, 2018-03-05 Accelerated learning isn't that just for gifted students Accelerating the Learning of All Students Cultivating Culture Change in Schools Classrooms and Individuals answers that question while providing a vivid description of what happens at the school classroom and individual levels when people attempt to extend efforts to accelerate learning to all students The book begins with a definition of accelerated learning and provides a vivid description of efforts to accelerate the learning of three populations of students those identified as gifted those identified as low achieving and all students The book then examines the assumptions shaping school classroom and individual efforts to accelerate the learning of all students Written by a pair of educators one trained in gifted and talented education and the other in cultural anthropology this book provides teachers parents administrators and researchers with insight into why we continue to fail so many students and how we can cultivate change in schools classrooms and individuals so that all students receive the enriched challenging learning experiences typically reserved only for students identified as gifted Acceleration for Gifted Learners, K-5 Joan Franklin Smutny, Sally Y. Walker, Elizabeth A. Meckstroth, 2006-10-19 Smutny has assembled a group of colleagues who bring very practical and useful insights to this issue and suggest practices that will make the use of this important curricular modification justifiable manageable and most of all normal Acceleration is not treated as a strategy of last resort but as a logical and reasonable way to acknowledge and provide for the growth and continuous progress of all children By broadening the idea of acceleration as a way to meet academic emotional and social needs the book turns the concerns about acceleration into strengths Barbara Clark Professor Emeritus California State University Los Angeles A well written extremely useful guide for parents and educators who wish to provide gifted students an opportunity to learn at a pace and level appropriate to their abilities Offers valuable insight on the social and emotional aspects of effective acceleration Jan Davidson President and Co-founder Davidson Institute for Talent Development Coauthor Genius Denied How to Stop Wasting Our Brightest Young Minds Raise the bar on accelerated learning and discover new possibilities that go beyond minimum proficiency Written for K-5 teachers this practical guide corrects misunderstandings in the field of acceleration and provides the tools necessary to effectively determine the most appropriate learning options for gifted students Through real life stories well known authors in gifted education Joan Franklin Smutny Sally Y Walker and Elizabeth A Meckstroth dispel the common myths about acceleration and describe what it is what forms it takes and what it can do for gifted learners intellectually socially and emotionally Presenting nuts and bolts guidance this valuable resource provides Numerous case studies helpful checklists and reproducible forms Prevailing theories and current research Social emotional aspects of acceleration practices Instructional strategies for implementation in various school settings Learning opportunities for underserved groups such as multicultural and urban students Bibliographies and helpful Web sites Offering a new perspective on how prevailing attitudes have deprived students of opportunities to develop their talents Acceleration for Gifted Learners K 5 directly reflects the 2004 Templeton Report in validating the urgency to meet gifted students needs Accelerated Typing Roger H.
