What should I do if my child asks why books to get more points?

Reading books that are not within the reading ability may seem appealing to your child as they will be able to read the books quickly and earn points. However, this is not the goal of the program. The goal is to ensure that your child is reading at their own pace and that they are enjoying the process. It is important to encourage your child to read books that are challenging for them, but that they can still read with confidence.

Why reading matters?

Reading matters because it helps children to learn and grow. Reading helps children to learn and grow.
