Absolute Destruction:

Destroy Them Gradually Andrew R. Basso, 2024-02-16 Perpetrators of mass atrocities have used displacement to transport victims to killing sites or extermination camps to transfer victims to sites of forced labor and attrition to ethnically homogenize regions by moving victims out of their homes and lands and to destroy populations by depriving them of vital daily needs Displacement has been treated as a corollary practice to crimes committed not a central aspect of their perpetration Destroying Them Gradually examines four cases that illuminate why perpetrators have destroyed populations using displacement policies Germany's genocide of the Herero 1904 1908 Ottoman genocides of Christian minorities 1914 1925 expulsions of Germans from East Central Europe 1943 1952 and climate violence twenty first century Because displacement has been typically framed as a secondary aspect of mass atrocities existing scholarship overlooks how perpetrators use it as a means of executing destruction rather than a vehicle for moving people to a specific location to commit atrocities
