Canadian Short Story:

The Canadian Short Story Reingard M. Nischik, 2007 Beginning in the 1890s reaching its first full realization by modernist writers in the 1920s and brought to its heyday during the Canadian Renaissance starting in the 1960s the short story has become Canada's flagship genre It continues to attract the country's most accomplished and innovative writers today among them Margaret Atwood Mavis Gallant Alice Munro Carol Shields and many others Yet in contrast to the stature and popularity of the genre and the writers who partake in it surprisingly little literary criticism and theory has been devoted to the Canadian short story This collection redresses that imbalance by providing the first collection of critical interpretations of a range of thirty well known and often anthologized Canadian short stories from the genre's beginnings through the twentieth century A historical survey of the genre introduces the volume and a timeline comparing the genre's development in Canada the US and Great Britain via representative examples completes it The collection is geared both to specialists in and to students of Canadian literature For the latter it is of particular benefit that the volume provides not only a collection of interpretations but a comprehensive introduction to the history of the Canadian short story Reingard M Nischik is professor and chair of American Literature at the University of Constance Germany Penguin Book of Canadian Short Stories Jane Urquhart, 2008-09-30 National Bestseller Internationally acclaimed writer Jane Urquhart has thoughtfully selected over sixty extraordinary short stories to create this majestic anthology of literary treasures Spanning more than a century of rich diverse prose this collection features Canada's literary greats as well as its emerging voices ranging from early twentieth century luminaries right up to the present day This stunning volume of outstanding stories is quite possibly the best collection of its kind Includes stories from Margaret Atwood Dionne Brand Michael Crummey Timothy Findley Mavis Gallant Sheila Heti Thomas King Annabel Lyon Lucy Maud Montgomery Anita Rau Badami Gabrielle Roy Carol Shields Madeleine Thien M G Vassanji and many more Canadian Short Stories Raymond Knister, 1928 The Faber Book of Contemporary Canadian Short Stories Michael Ondaatje, 1990 A collection of Canadian short stories The book includes works by Alastair Macleod Gabrielle Roy Wallace Stegner George Bowering Margaret Atwood Sinclair Ross Alice French Mordecai Richler Audrey Thomas Sean Virgo Sandra Birdsell Elizabeth Smart Alice Munro and many others The One and the Many Gerald Lynch, 2001-05-02 The search for the Great Canadian Novel has long continued throughout our history Controversially to say the least Gerald Lynch maintains that a version of it may already have been written as a great Canadian short story cycle In this unique text the author launches into a fascinating literary historical survey and genre study of the English Canadian short story cycle the literary form that occupies the middle ground between short stories and novels This wide ranging volume has much to say about the continuing relationship between place and identity in Canadian literature and culture Initially Lynch employs Stephen Leacock's Sunshine Sketches of a Little Town for illustrative purposes and begins by discussing two definitive features of short story cycles the ways in which their form conveys meaning and the paramount function of their concluding stories which are here called return stories Lynch then devotes five discrete but related chapters to six Canadian short story cycles spanning some one hundred years from Duncan Campbell Scott to Thomas King and tracing some surprising continuities in this distinctive genre A number of the works are discussed extensively for the first time within the tradition of the Canadian short story cycle which has never before been accorded book length study in English This engaging and intelligent volume will be of interest to the general reader as well as specialists in Canadian literature

Canadian Short Stories Donna Bennett, Russell Brown, 2005 Canadian Short Stories is an exciting collection of both old and new The 39 stories place the historic writers of the short story in Canada alongside both established living writers and new practitioners of the form

Open Country Robert Lecker, 2008 Open Country Canadian Literature in English Canadian Short Fiction is a contemporary showcase of the country's writing The collection includes extensive annotations that offer new interpretive possibilities for the study and appreciation of Canadian literature Editor Robert Lecker provides an unparalleled view of Canada's literary evolution This volume brings together short fiction by 48 authors who gained prominence between 1836 and the present with an emphasis on contemporary writers and a focus on identity race gender and sexuality Organized chronologically the works of each author are introduced by a detailed bio critical essay that provides background information about the influences and ideas shaping the selected works as well as the author's career Open Country Canadian Literature in English Canadian Short Fiction combines recognized works in the Canadian canon with innovative challenges to the tradition creating a dynamic balance between the established and the new

The Canadian Short Story John Metcalf, 2018-09-25 No other person has done more to celebrate and encourage the short story in Canada than John Metcalf For more than five decades he has worked tirelessly as editor anthologist writer critic and teacher to help shape our understanding of the form and what it can do The long time editor of the yearly Best Canadian Stories anthology as well as a fiction editor at some of the pre eminent literary presses in the country for more than forty years he has worked to support and champion several generations of our best writers Literature in Canada would be far less without his efforts Sifting through a lifetime of reading writing and thinking about the short story in this country and where it fits within the larger currents of world literature Metcalf's magisterial The Canadian Short Story offers the most authoritative book on the subject to date Most importantly it includes an expanded and reconsidered Century List Metcalf's critical guide to the best Canadian short story collections of the last 100 years But more than a critical book The Canadian Short Story is a love letter to the form a passionate defense of the best of our literature and a championing of those books and writers most often overlooked It is a guide not only to what to read but also one its author's most fervent desire which aims to make better readers of us all
