Canadian Forces in Afghanistan 3-Book Bundle Bernd Horn,Emily Spencer,2016-02-27 Canadian Forces including Special Operations Forces have played an outsize role in the conflict in Afghanistan often under a cloak of secrecy For the first time Col Bernd Horn reveals the stories of the troops and operations behind Canada's pivotal involvement in the Afghanistan conflict No Ordinary Men Peels back the cloak of secrecy and reveals four untold special operations that Joint Task Force 2 an elite counterterrorist unit conducted in 2005 06 in which their courage tenacity and impressive capabilities meant the difference between life and death No Lack of Courage The story of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization's Operation Medusa the largely Canadian action in Afghanistan from 1 to 17 September 2006 to dislodge a heavily entrenched Taliban force in the Pashmul district of Afghanistans Kandahar Province No Easy Task Afghanistan has long been considered the graveyard of empires Those who have ventured into Afghanistan with notions of controlling its people have soon discovered that fighting in that rugged hostile land is no easy task This collection of essays examines this legacy of conflict particularly from a Canadian perspective Interpretation and Application of Tax Treaties in North America Juan Angel Becerra,2007 This book presents an overview of the materials court cases and mutual agreement procedures implemented in Canada USA and Mexico In addition it provides a background to the development of tax treaty law and the information necessary to interpret a tax treaty based upon the principles codified in the Vienna Convention of the Law of Treaties Contents the background of the early model tax conventions the development of tax treaty law the specific materials from Canada the United States and Mexico proposal for a trilateral tax treaty for North America to provide full relief from the harmful barriers against free movement of capital and services American Art Directory 2005-2006 National Register Publishing,2004 Canadian Florist ,2005 Creative Presence Emily Merson,2020-09-11 Historically artwork has played a powerful role in shaping settler colonial subjectivity and the political imagination of Westphalian sovereignty through the canonization of particular visual artworks aesthetic theories and art institutions methods of display Creative Presence contributes a transnational feminist intersectional analysis of visual and performance artwork by Indigenous contemporary artists who directly engage with colonialism and decolonization This book makes the case that decolonial aesthetics is a form of labour and knowledge production that calls attention to the foundational violence of settler colonialism in the formation of the world order of sovereign states Creative Presence analyzes how artists purposeful selection of materials media forms and place making in the exhibitions and performances of their work reveals the limits of conventional International Relations theories methods and debates on sovereignty and participates in Indigenous reclamations of lands and waterways in world politics Brian Jungen s sculpture series Prototypes for New Understanding and Rebecca Belmore s filmed performances Vigil and Fountain exhibit how colonial power has been imagined visualized and institutionalized historically and in contemporary settler visual culture These contemporary visual and performance artworks by Indigenous artists that name the political violence of settler colonial claims to exclusive territorial sovereignty introduce possibilities for decolonizing audiences sensibilities and political imagination of lands and waterways

Museum Temporalities Wayne Modest, Peter Pels, 2005-11-19 Museum Temporalities analyzes how museums relate to time It explores the hidden temporal assumptions and practices that define museums How might these assumptions help us to better understand and address museums often problematic and painful relationship to the colonial past Since the nineteenth century the globalization of the museum has spread specific understandings of permanence and temporariness that inform museum display separated the modern from the traditional and promoted preservation and development in ways that tacitly assume a North Atlantic cultural outlook as the end point of history and the standard that determines a hierarchy of science art technology craft and natural history Questioning linear and epochal genealogies that assume Enlightenment surveys of the classifiable universe as the origin of the museum Modest and Pels present evidence that global exhibitionary complexes will fail to sufficiently address questions of decolonization and restitution if they do not make room for the ethnographic museum as a principal site where suggestions for the future of all museums can be generated They show that any attempt to address the problematic and painful relationship that museums have to colonial pasts requires them to reorient their relationship to time The chapters in this volume assembles building blocks for a theory and practice of museums that no longer assumes the need for identities objects and collections to be permanent for the museum to be the end point of knowledge and for art or science to be the universal measure to which other forms of cultural production can only aspire This pathbreaking collection centralizes and develops current concerns in critical museology and is valuable reading for scholars and students
