Canadian Caribbean Relations In Transition:

Canadian-Caribbean Relations in Transition Jerry Haar, Anthony Bryan, 1999-08-26 An up to date analysis and assessment of the evolving relationship between Canada and the Commonwealth Caribbean this volume focuses on three dynamic and important issues By presenting a current picture of the Canadian Caribbean relationship the book not only fills a void in academic contributions to the topic but serves as an invaluable reference guide for policy analysts non governmental representatives and public and private decision makers Caribbean Survival and the Global Challenge Ramesh Ramsaran, 2002 Most of the 27 papers are from a March 2000 conference in St Augustine Trinidad but a few were commissioned to fill out the coverage Most of the political and economic scholars who contribute are from the Caribbean but a few are from Britain Canada and Florida There is no index Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Latin America After Neoliberalism C. Wylde, 2012-09-18 Wylde analyzes Kirchnerismo in Argentina and the developmental regime approach in the political economy of development in Latin America He shows the systematic way in which relationships between state market state society and national international dichotomies can be characterised within a developmentalist paradigm American Empire and the Political Economy of Global Finance L. Panitch, M. Konings, 2008-07-24 In a lively critique of how international and comparative political economy misjudge the relationship between global markets and states this book demonstrates the central place of the American state in today's world of globalized finance The contributors set aside traditional emphases on military intervention looking instead to economics Governance Ecosystems J. Sagebien, N. Lindsay, 2011-10-12 The authors explore the complex dynamics of mining and Corporate Social Responsibility CSR in Latin America including a reflection on the African continent presenting arguments and case studies based on new research on a set of urgent and emerging questions surrounding mining development and sustainability The Future of Entrepreneurship in Latin America E. Brenes, J. Haar, 2012-04-02 This book examines the outlook for Latin American entrepreneurs in the new global environment Using case studies from across the region the book highlights liberalization measures nations are adopting to facilitate small and medium size enterprise SME creation and growth and existing barriers that are threatening SME sector gains The Black Book of Canadian Foreign Policy Yves Engler, 2009 This book could change how you see Canada Most of us believe this country's primary role has been as peacekeeper or honest broker in difficult to solve disputes But contrary to the mythology of Canada as a force for good in the world The Black Book of Canadian Foreign Policy sheds light on many dark corners from troops that joined the British in Sudan in 1885 to gunboat diplomacy in the Caribbean and aspirations of Central American empire to participation in the U N mission that killed Patrice Lumumba in the Congo to important support for apartheid South Africa Zionism and the U S war in Vietnam to helping overthrow Salvador Allende and supporting the Pinochet dictatorship in Chile to Haiti Iraq and Afghanistan today We bear responsibility for what governments do in the world primarily our own but secondarily those we can influence our allies in particular Yves Engler's penetrating inquiry yields a rich trove of valuable evidence about Canada's role in the world and poses a challenge for citizens who are willing to take their fundamental responsibilities seriously

GoogleBooks Washington Report on the Hemisphere, 2000 Capitalism and Class Power Ronald W. Cox, 2023-11-20 How do corporations use their instrumental and structural power within markets and states to advance their policy agendas Capitalism and Class Power examines corporate power through chapters on the U S military industrial complex the rise of billionaire wealth in the U S the role of a transnational investment bloc in U S Saudi relations the rise of global disinformation firms Canadian imperialism in the English speaking Caribbean the power of an EU corporate bloc in Caribbean trade agreements the relationship between capitalism and poverty in rich capitalist countries and the relationship between neoliberalism and capitalism Professor Cox concludes the volume with reflections on the importance of corporate power research to achieving systemic change Contributors are Melissa Boissiere Aram Eisenschitz Jamie A Gough Adam D Hernandez Tamanisha J John Mazaher Koruzhde Rob Piper and Bryant William Sculos Ronald W Cox is Professor of Politics and International Relations at Florida International University He has published six books on corporate power in the global economy and is editor of the open access online journal Class Race and Corporate Power The Foreign Relations of Trinidad and Tobago (1962-2000) Sahadeo Basdeo, Graeme Mount, 2001 New West Indian guide, 2002 Devindex Canada, 1983 A Bibliography of Works on Canadian Foreign Relations, 1976-1980, 1982 Post-Neoliberalism in the Americas Laura Macdonald, 2009-01-15 This collection brings together a diverse range of analyses to interrogate policy changes and to grapple with the on going transformations of neoliberalism in both North America and various Latin American states IDRC, 1983 Special Relationship in the Malay World Ho Ying Chan, 2018-07-31 Ho Ying Chan provides an expert analysis of Malaysia Indonesia relations He demystifies the concept of a special relationship rescuing it from woolly sentimental rhetoric that often emanates from political figures and popular commentators His well informed study shows how a state's will to survive in the amoral world of international relations drives its conduct even in circumstances of common identities and common strategic interests with other states He evaluates comparative evidence to shed light on how a special relationship leads to the emergence of a pluralistic security community This is a conclusion of insight and value not only to the field of Southeast Asian Studies but also to the wider community of International Relations scholars Professor Clinton Fernandes University of New South Wales Australia Empirically rich and theoretically interesting this book offers an illuminating account of how material and ideational dynamics shape the evolution of Malaysia Indonesia relations Focusing on what is arguably the most vital bilateral relationship in Southeast Asia it addresses the circumstances conditions and constraints that determine the double edged effects of the culturally bound special relationship Ho Ying Chan argues that while their shared serumpun identities and strategic interests do give rise to a considerable closeness between Malaysia and Indonesia the politics of power imbalance have prevented the transformation of the special relationship into a pluralistic security community as their egoistic understanding averts the formation of collective self The book generates useful insights on the interplay of cross border cultural affinity and political necessity inviting readers to ponder the politics of identity and survivability at the international level It is a welcome addition to the growing literature of Southeast Asian international relations Dr Kuik Cheng Chwee National University of Malaysia UKM Ho Ying Chan s important study brings home the international and theoretical significance of the interaction between Malaysia and Indonesia the two major states of Muslim Southeast Asia products of the territorial division between the British and Dutch colonial empires This welcome and revealing review of the Malaysia Indonesia story deepens our understanding of the concept of a special relationship explaining both the cooperative and competitive dynamics that can be present and the way such relationships are influenced by state identities and power imbalances Anthony Milner University of Malaya University of Melbourne A Bibliography of Works on Canadian Foreign Relations ,1986 Naval War College Review Naval War College (U.S.),1998 Devindex 1982 : Index to Selected Literature on Economic and Social Development Centre de recherches pour le développement international (Canada),International Development Research Centre (Canada),1983 Naval War College Review ,1998
