Dear Mr. Wallace,

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to you today to inform you that I wish to discontinue my account I understand that this may come as unexpected news, and I apologize for any inconvenience it may cause.

After careful consideration and evaluation, I have concluded that at this point it is in my best interest to cancel the account though the service has been greatly beneficial, my circumstances and needs have changed making it impractical for me to maintain the account.

Please take this letter as my formal request for account termination and kindly proceed with the necessary cancellation process I kindly ask for you to provide me with any necessary confirmation and proof of cancellation to ensure clarity and understanding.

Furthermore, I would like to request that any remaining balance in the account be refunded to me if applicable. I appreciate your understanding and prompt cooperation in this matter. Thank you for your time and effort.

Best Regards,
