

King Arthur

Sir Tristram

Sir Lancelot

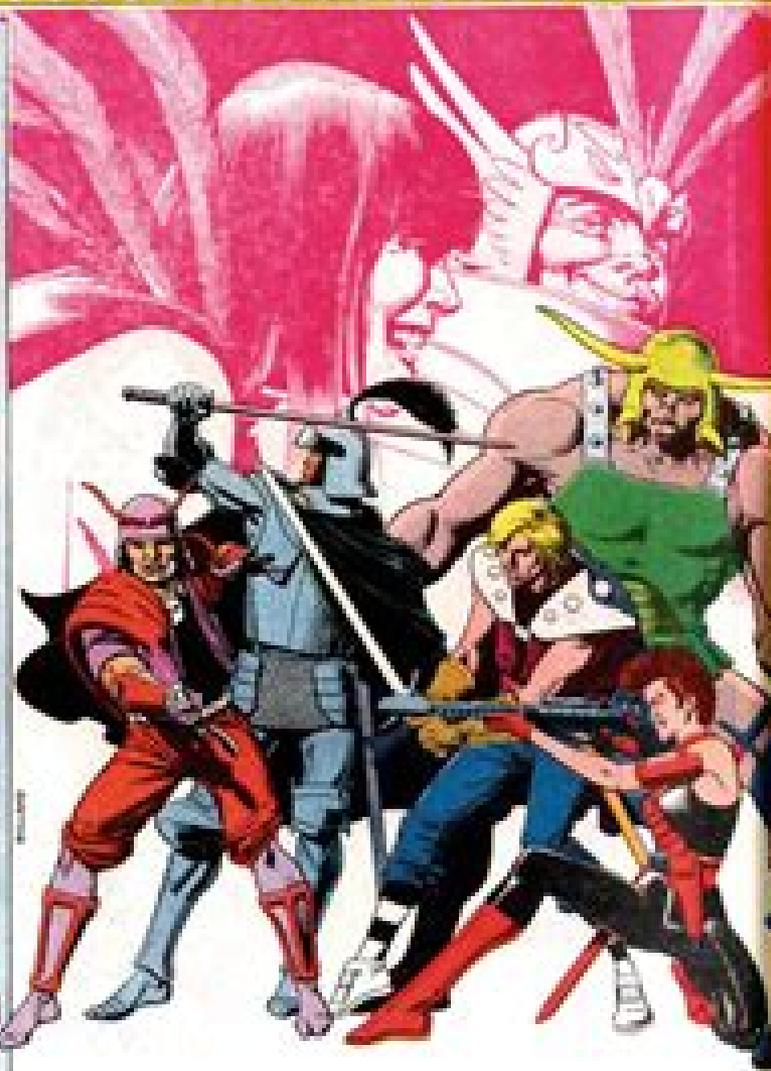

Sir Galahad

Sir Percival

Merlin

When the Earth was mysteriously invaded by a race of menacing aliens in the year 2000, Arthurian heroes Sir Percival and Sir Lancelot were the first to arrive to help in the battle against the alien invaders. It was in the final moments of the war that King Arthur was killed. The young knight was astonished when, in his fight, he battled with a large robot and found it to be King Arthur's brother, although King Arthur was by no means dead, only sleeping. Believing this to be "the time of England's greatest need," the two decided to the Arthurian mythos when he would return. King Arthur awakened his brother to the danger and then the two decided to go to his imprisonment, then mysteriously made their escape. Arthur led them to the cave from the robot's return of an ancient power jewel that he had found it so many years ago. Next, the monarch awakened the two companions of his of the Round Table knights. They included Sir Galahad, the wealthy French nobleman Sir Percival, Sir Kay, King Arthur's elder brother, and a sister named only as Merlin. Sir Percival, a spiritual leader, transformed by the spirit's powerful influence into a pulling, speedster-like man. Sir Galahad, in his way, a spiritual warrior. Sir Percival, a highly trained man able to locate his home for family, and Sir Tristram, who was seemingly destroyed by the Gem's power until a young woman, Ishtar, saved him. King Arthur also learned the Queen's name. The woman lived by him from birth and his best friend, Sir Lancelot, had been kidnapped by Alan Arthur, a villain leader in the United Earth Defense. Eventually, the stone was found to be an interdimensional death power in the latter system, a power under the total control of the villainous Morgan Le Fay, King Arthur's half-sister and enemy. She arrived to steal King Arthur's legendary son, kidnapped an alien alien, Sir Kay, Security Director, in her scheme, and Lancelot's attempt to locate the Gem's power only barely succeeded.

Meanwhile, Morgan Le Fay attempted to gain dominion in the world of the living, but by revealing to Sir Tristram that he lived in her former life, she had also been destroyed as a woman, and then offered to transform Tristram into a man. When Tristram refused the power, Morgan continued to try to kill her scheme. Key appeared at the last moment and gave his life to save King Arthur's.

The knights also undertake a quest for the Holy Grail, a search that culminated in the transformation of Sir Percival.

The conflict moved on the earth plane to a battle in the North, where Morgan had captured Sir Galahad's partner, gaining entrance to Morgan's castle, and Sir Lancelot was forced to a battle royal, while Morgan was wearing armor forged from the Grail itself. In a final battle, he knew the forces of King Arthur and Morgan Le Fay. Both sides were destroyed, but the Round Table knights emerged victorious.

"The sunning knights and allies returned to Earth to resume their lives, with Merlin warning, 'In your world to ponder... and the cycle begins anew.'"
