Chronicles of the Hostile Sun Dionne Brand, 1984      Comrade Sister Laurie R. emphatically postcolonial character of the contemporary conjuncture as well as to inquire into whether postcolonial criticism can adequately grasp it Neither simply for nor against postcolonialism the volume seeks to cut across this false alternative and to think with postcolonial theory about political contemporaneity Many of the most influential frameworks of postcolonial theory were developed during the 1970s and 1990s during what we may now recognize as the twilight of the postwar period If forms of capitalist imperialism are entering into new configurations of neoliberal privatization wars without end xenophobic nationalism and unsustainable extraction what aspects of postcolonial inquiry must be reworked or revised in order to grasp our political present In twelve essays that draw from a number of disciplines history anthropology literature geography indigenous studies and regional locations the Black Atlantic South Africa South Asia East Asia Australia Argentina The Postcolonial Contemporary seeks to move beyond the habitual oppositions that have often characterized the field such as universal vs particular Marxism vs postcolonialism and politics vs culture These essays signal an attempt to reckon with new and persisting postcolonial predicaments and do so under four inter related analytics Postcolonial Temporality Deprovincializing the Global South Beyond Marxism versus Postcolonial Studies and Postcolonial Spatiality and New Political Imaginaries University of Toronto Quarterly University of Toronto,1992 Chronicles Concerning Early Babylonian Kings Leonard William King,1907 West Coast Line ,1994 Chronicles Concerning Early Babylonian Kings: Introductory chapters Leonard William King,1907 15 Canadian Poets X 3 Gary Geddes,2001 This is the fourth edition of Gary Geddes highly successful anthology of Canadian poetry All of the poets included in the previous editions have been retained although their selections have been carefully reconsidered Among new poets added to this edition are Anne Carson Dionne Brand Daphne Marlatt bpNichol Louise Bernice Halfe and Fred Wah Most poets are represented by several poems to allow students to gain greater understanding and appreciation for their work The Power to Bend Spoons Beverley Daurio,1998 Since 1990 Canadian fiction has blossomed Canadian novels have been discovered by an international audience as never before garnering acclaim and prizes around the world from the Orange to the Pulitzer and all stops in between The Power to Bend Spoons collects interviews with Canadian novelists from this dynamic period including Margaret Atwood Jane Urquhart Nino Ricci Thomas King Michael Ondaatje and many others and provides an intriguing and indepth look at authors their working practices and their literary passions Other Solitudes Linda Hutcheon,Marion Richmond,1990 Canadian Identity Association for Canadian Studies. city that s never happened before about waiting for a bus standing on a corner watching a stranger the bank to one corner the driving school on another the milk store and the church This is also about the poet her own restless sensibility woven in and out through moments of lyric beauty dramatic power and storytelling grace It is written in the margins like a medieval manuscript with shades of light and darkness The Anglo-caribbean Migration Novel María Lourdes López Roper, 2004 Toronto New York and London have become the new frontiers of Anglophone Caribbean literature one of the most vibrant and prolific world literatures written in English Drawing on new ethnographic trends The Anglo Caribbean Migration Novel Writing from the Diaspora approaches Caribbean literature as a multi centred diaspora This book highlights the distinctiveness of the different branches of the Caribbean literary diaspora in the Anglo American world through writers such as Samuel Selvon Caryl Phillips Paule Marshall Austin Clarke and Dionne Brand The volume is a response to the need for a deeper focus on the articulation of diversity within the Caribbean diaspora and its imaginative renderings The Commonwealth Review ,2007 Writing on the Line Sarah Richardson, 1996 Working class women have been published in increasing numbers in the 20th century in spite of the many social filters which might prevent them having a voice The particular characteristics of this voice have never been assessed in spite of the socialist movement the women s movement and the fact that working class women are the majority of people in the world As a new guide to reading this book is not only a valuable reference but also an inspiring celebration of working class women s writing Back cover Phoebe ,1996 Room of One's Own ,1991
