Church Folk Michele Marie McClain,2019-01-13 Church Folk Poetry is inspired by my own personal church experiences as a church member leader and ordained minister I am exhausted and ashamed of what the unchurched see and believe to be the Church which God birthed I am tired of sitting amongst unbelievers who tell of their own experiences with Christians We are not doing a good job spreading the Gospel of Jesus Christ and touring this World as God s Ambassadors It is time to get back to the true Church We must return to our passion for the work of ministry serving loving and discipling This compilation of poems Church Folk Poetry ministers to The Christian as he shuffles his cares and wears and tries earnestly to hear from God Church Folk speaks to the Single Unmarried the Straying the Gossip the Jealous the Judgmental the Elderly the Evangelist and the one struggling with his flesh It is so easy to become so fixed on personal distractions and allow them to consume us and find ourselves leaving this World never completing the work God has called us to do Church Folk encourages us to overcome our distractions Self Flesh and pick up our cross and follow Christ focusing on our purpose our God and pressing forward For we are destined for Great Work No it most likely is not a Great Work amassing tangible riches or fame but it is a Great Work of love Church Poetry, Or, Christian Thoughts in Old and Modern Verse Isaac Williams,1844

Barton,2020-11-25 Here is a second book of engaging creative and theologically astute poems for each Sunday of the church year and occasional other days based on the texts for Year B of the Revised Common Lectionary Original Testament Gospel Letters and Psalms With the conviction that Scripture always proclaims something new about God each of these 107 poems reveal a surprise often with humor like the proclamations made by the biblical writers There are five new hymn texts with suggested tunes and another poem can be a light hearted choir anthem For preachers study groups and personal devotions the index of 128 biblical references will make the book usable at any time With titles like Kind of Disturbed by Some of These Scriptures Does Jesus Still Thumb His Nose and From the KJV to Shazam these poems will provoke amuse inform and inspire anyone who suspects the Bible s purpose is to proclaim grace for our lives Church of the Robin's Ha-Ha! Anne Richey,2017-08-31 Church of the Robin s Ha Ha the title poem of this collection underscores John Burroughs essentially religious connection to nature For the famed Catskill naturalist and writer heaven on earth was no mere clichE but a reality His parents Calvinist preoccupation with the heaven to come seemed to him tragically misguided and counter productive Still as Anne Richey reminds us Burroughs love for the earth was tempered by eyes determinedly wide open yes bird song enchants us but somewhere a snake is devouring a baby bird In other poems all set in the Catskills Richey keeps faith with Burroughs devotion to the near at hand the sunlit and the dark a doting mother photographs her two boys a dog cowers in fear a man appears to walk on water

Pages Called Holy J. Ted Voigt, 2009-06-01 Seeking to live a Christian life in this American society can often evoke a wide range of emotions and the precipitation sometimes looks like poetry Times of great joy as well as times of disappointment and great sorrow are excellent catalysts for a kind of poetry that speaks in real ways to real people This project contains both joy and sorrow in an attempt to express different aspects of the changing atmosphere of the religious experience in the twenty first century I believe poetry can speak simply to deeper theological ideas in a way that is both deeply beautiful and deeply true At times theology can be a very inaccessible subject for the average layperson but it can also have a certain simple beauty that anyone can appreciate As I have read and learned about theology I ve always found that the most profound ideas can be written out logically in essays and books or they can be stated in succinct but imaginative phrases I write with the latter category in mind Pages Called Holy has been written over the past three years as I live work and learn in a local church Most of these poems have their inspiration in the struggles of church life and the disparity between what I see happening and what I see God calling the Church to be It is this tension that brings life to the poetry I write and it is my hope that these poems would speak to an audience of the countless numbers of believers across all generations who feel that same tension between what is and what could be

Poems for the Church's Year Richard France, 2013-03-12 This book contains in verse form depictions of events in the Bible as they may have happened Often ordinary or even unknown people carrying out their daily activities would be suddenly immersed in a supernatural occurrence One example would be the shepherds looking after their sheep and then in the middle of their work becoming witnesses of the birth of Jesus Christ Some of these poems seek to evoke the atmosphere on such occasions and the reactions of the people present Other poems are portrayals of the actual events themselves while others again describe the present day commemorations of those special events which make up the Christian Church s Year All royalties from the sale of this book go to the Little Way Association which taking its name from the Little Way of St Therese Patroness of the Missions works to provide spiritual and material help to village communities in the developing world
