Churches Respond to Bem Max Thurian,1987 Churches respond to BEM Max Thurian,1986 Churches Respond to BEM. ,1988 Churches Respond to BEM Max Thurian,1986 Churches Respond to BEM. ,1987 In Order to Serve Leo J. Koffeman,2014 Ecclesiology is in the centre of current ecumenical dialogue However this hardly seems to influence theological reflection on church polity This book explores new avenues in this respect in an attempt to enhance a truly ecumenical and inter cultural approach of the theological discipline of church polity without neglecting its juridical character Method in Ecumenical Theology Gillian Rosemary Evans,1996-05-02 First published in 1996 this book examines the search for unity in the Church Bound Together Shawn O. Strout,2024-12-10 An exploration and an affirmation of the connection between the Church s sacraments of initiation Inviting the unbaptized to participate in the Eucharist has become an increasingly common practice in churches as Christian communities explore ways to use the sacraments as an expression of openness and service In this volume sacramental theologian Shawn Strout reconsiders this trend Arguing from church history sacramental theology and liturgical practice Strout shows how baptism and the Eucharist form an indissoluble bond that is central to Christian initiation and community The book s conclusion turns to pastoral considerations and ecumenical relationships showing the significance of the traditional ordo of baptism and Eucharist for the church An important text for clergy scholars and church leaders Bound Together Baptism Eucharist and the Church offers important reflections on an issue of pressing concern Baptism, Church and Society in Modern Britain David M. Thompson,2007-01-01 This book is an enlarged version of the author s Hulsean Lectures in the University of Cambridge for 1983 4 It considers the main movements in the theology of baptism both that of infants and believers in Great Britain from the Evangelical Revival to the publication of the World Council of Churches Faith and Order Commission s consensus statement on Baptism Eucharist and Ministry of 1982 Thus as well as the shifts in the Church of England from evangelical to tractarian broad church to liberal catholic there is a survey of the views of Methodists Baptists and Congregationalists with reflections from the scene in Scotland and Ireland during the same period It offers a survey of popular belief and practice about baptism from the eighteenth century to the present because of the author s conviction that theological movements have to be seen in their historical context In the case of baptism in particular a consistent difference has persisted between popular perceptions and the Churches expectations which poses significant challenges to the understanding of the Churches mission in contemporary society Recovering the Evangelical Sacrament Anthony R. Cross,2012-12-06 The subject of baptism continues to be of considerable interest though it frequently appears within broader studies of sacraments liturgy worship and ecumenical studies and within confessional bounds credobaptist or paedobaptist yet it is rarely discussed by Evangelicals This book however is neither an apologetic for credobaptism nor paedobaptism rather Cross believes that as practiced today both forms are a departure from New Testament baptism which he maintains was an integral part of becoming a Christian and part of the proclaimed gospel He argues that the one baptism of Ephesians 4 5 is conversion baptism and that the baptism referred to in the various New Testament strata refers to this one baptism of Spirit and water The study sets out the case for this interpretation and contends that in key passages baptism is an example of synecdoche The case is then made for a sacramental interpretation of baptism from a thoroughgoing Evangelical perspective Cross concludes with reflections on the necessity of baptismal reform and the relevance of a return to conversion baptism for the contemporary church in a post Christian post Christendom mission setting Churches respond to BEM Max Thurian,1988

Prayer Book for the 21st Century ,1996 Churches Respond to BEM , Gregorianum ,1988 A History of the Ecumenical Movement World Council of Churches,2004 This volume presents the history of the ecumenical movement worldwide over the last three decades Leading theologians and ecumenists from a variety of traditions have come together to describe and analyze the movement s most recent developments Together with Volumes I and II this Volume now completes this major reference work the only official history of the ecumenical movement This is a key purchase for all scholars church leaders clergy and students and it is an invaluable companion to Volumes I and II The Ecumenical Review ,1999
