

We believe and teach that Christ is the message of the Bible. The approach of what we preach is in the light of what He has done by faith the grace of God, in His life, burial, death and resurrection. We value reaching out to the lost as well as establishing the already saved. We are intentional in our missional and discipleship approach. We labour to reconcile the lost back to God and establish believers in the faith.

Redemptive Suffering in the Life of the Church Diana L. Ruzicka,2015-10-24 This book addresses the concept and practice of redemptive suffering while chronicling the life and death of a friend who with her husband of forty years allowed me to accompany her on her end of life journey and first hand understand the value of suffering and observe its redeeming effect As Christians we are called to alleviate the suffering of others Please join me in my quest to understand the value of redemptive suffering in the life of the Church and how uniting ones suffering by an act of the will in love with the sufferings of Christ can bring great grace peace and joy and serve to participate with Christ in redeeming the world

Power, Agency, and Women in the Mission of God Susan L. Maros,Vince L. Bantu,Kirsteen Kim,2024-05-10 This volume fulfills the need for an accessible academic book that addresses the gender issues that women face as Christian disciples whether in formal leadership roles or engaging leadership in informal means and considers these issues in the context of world Christianity In an era in which mission is from everywhere to everywhere when local churches strive to be missional and when Christians are engaged in intercultural ministry this book invites a scholar practitioner conversation engaging multiple disciplines and perspectives to explore the role of women in the mission of God An interdisciplinary and intercultural conversation about women will enrich the church s ongoing effort to be faithful to God s call to women and men to participate in God s work in the world
