Does Marketing Need Reform? Jagdish N Sheth, Rajendra S Sisodia, 2015-01-28 Many

marketers fear that the field's time-worn principles are losing touch with today's realities. Does Marketing Need Reform collects the insights of a select group of leading marketing thinkers and practitioners who are committed to restoring marketing's timeless values. The book sets the agenda for a new generation of marketing principles. As the editors note in their introduction, Marketing is a powerful force backed up by huge resources. It must be entrusted only to those with the wisdom to use it well. The contributors seek to understand and explain how and why marketing has veered significantly off course in order to steer it back in the right direction. The concepts and perspectives presented in this book will inspire a renewed commitment to the highest ideals of marketing serving customers individually and society as a whole by synergistically aligning company, customer, and social interests.

Effective Management of Long-Term Care Facilities Douglas A. Singh, 2021-11-10. Effective Management of Long Term Care Facilities Fourth Edition examines the complex operations of the long term care facility and offers critical skills to current and future long term care administrators for delivering quality cost effective services. An excellent resource for both new and seasoned long term care managers, this logically organized text begins with an understanding of what long term care is and why it's an integral part of the health care delivery system. It moves on to explore the legal and regulatory parameters and payment constraints within which long term care facilities must be managed, each of the main functional departments that administrators must understand and oversee, and effective governance and leadership and management of human resources, marketing and quality, much of which is unique to nursing home administration. The final section of the book offers case studies to simulate situations that the administrator is likely to encounter in practice.
