

Welcome to Australia

Soaring sunlight. The medicinal tang of tea tree in the warm air. Fast-moving flashes of colour as parrots fly through the trees, screeching to each other as they go. Yes, cycling in Australia is a revelation for the senses. But the diverse bike rides in this book also take in much more than Australia's natural splendor. You can coast through cities, such as Canberra, Melbourne or Sydney, on waterside cycle paths, stopping for sightseeing and coffee as you please. Or explore the nation's heritage on several traffic-free rail trails that usher riders through layers of history, all the way back to the traditional custodians of the country.

Other trails, around Clare in South Australia or Tasmania's Bruny Island, offer a sustainable way of touring regions renowned for their food and wine. Adventure-seekers can try some of the new mountain-biking trails that are revitalizing towns like Derby and Melbourne. Being on a bicycle unlocks countless memorable experiences on this vast continent.
