

The background of the cover is an abstract composition of geometric shapes. It features a central horizontal band of light yellow, flanked by two large, trapezoidal shapes in orange and a darker brownish-orange. The top and bottom sections are filled with various shades of blue, ranging from a deep navy to a lighter, teal-like hue. The overall effect is a sense of depth and perspective, with the shapes appearing to recede into the distance.

Cyprus Ethnic Political Counterpoints:

Cyprus Halil Ibrahim Salih,2004 In 1963 with a revitalization of traditional cultural political and religious values bolstered by security threats Greek Cypriots sought to marginalize and terrorize Turkish Cypriots The result was a breakdown of the inter communal dialogue necessary for the creation of a State The concept of a unified Cypriot identity eroded as each community articulated the ethnic and national priorities of their separate motherlands Greece and Turkey This book investigates the current political challenges confronting the Greek and Turkish communities on Cyprus in the resolution of ongoing tensions that separate the island

Peacemaking Strategies in Cyprus Eleftherios A. Michael,2015-09-04 This book takes a systematic and holistic approach to examining all 41 peacemaking initiatives used to settle the Cyprus question from 1955 onward under the auspices of the United Nations and or other actors in the international system including the United States Canada the UK Greece and Turkey The analysis of peacemaking strategies dynamics and obstacles fleshes out numerous relationships between i peacemaking processes dynamics and outcomes from signaling to negotiations and to post accord completion and implementation ii concessions constraints and leverage during peacemaking negotiations and third party mediation and iii obstacles to finding an endgame solution and satisfying conditions for lasting peace expectations that all parties can agree on and implement successfully After documenting 62 interviews with top political leaders in Cyprus including top tier elected elites and third party mediators and about 70 more interviews with key informants including academics researchers members of negotiating teams technical committees and working groups this book concludes with a plethora of descriptive as well as prescriptive propositions on how peacemaking processes could lead to more sustainable and implementable peacemaking initiatives in Cyprus and in similar protracted and seemingly intractable cases Resolving the Cyprus Conflict M.

Michael,2009-11-09 By placing the conflict in its historical ideological ethno political and geostrategic context the book extends beyond conventional realist approaches and lays bare those less visible dimensions that are often ignored by analysts and policy makers alike Political Settlements in Divided Societies Christalla Yakinthou,2009-07-23

The problem of how political settlements are to be adopted in divided or post conflict societies is one which is receiving growing attention as the international community increasingly views protracted intra state conflicts as carrying trans national consequences It is not only finding the most appropriate kind of political settlement that is so problematic but also how to reach the point where those proposals are adopted Cyprus provides an illuminating case study of these problems The object of many years of scrutiny and multiple sustained efforts at resolution of its division means that Cyprus can reveal a good deal about what impedes and what assists progress towards a settlement The experiences of Cyprus therefore can offer lessons to both practitioners working on political solutions for divided and post conflict societies and to academics and others seeking to understand how conflicts become intractable where the primary impediments lie to successful constitutional architecture and how those impediments can be overcome The book offers answers for why political leaders in Cyprus have been so unwilling to adopt a power sharing solution In so doing it offers new material for the wider debate regarding constitutional design and adoption of peace plans in divided societies on the politics of institutionalising peace Bibliographic Index ,2008

Social and Political Aspects of the Cyprus Problem Michalis Kontos,Jonathan Warner,2016-08-17 In today s world the issue of Cyprus is notable for all the wrong reasons because of the duration of the divisions in Cyprus itself between Greek Cypriots and Turkish Cypriots formalized since 1983 by a disputed international border across the island because of the involvement of Greece and Turkey for which the hyphenated Cypriot communities form proxy battalions and because of the failure of the United Nations longstanding efforts to resolve the conflict Much of the discussion in the book revolves around the difficulty of producing viable constitutional and civic arrangements in an Defence Journal, 2006 Comparative Studies in the Development of Complex Societies, 1986 Constitution-making in the New South Africa Alexander Johnston, Sipho Shezi, Gavin Bradshaw, 1993 Without actually advocating it scholars from South Africa suggest the high probability that some form of federalism will emerge from the process of remaking that country after the demise of minority rule They discuss such topics as the role of and challenges to the African National Congress contending views of the economy interactions between local bargaining and national level political negotiations and the place of the new country in a larger world that is changing nearly as rapidly The 15 studies were presented at a 1991 conference in Leicester England Distributed in the US by St Martin s Press The CIP shows the title incorrectly Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR American Book Publishing Record, 2005 The World Archaeological Congress, 1-7 September 1986, Southampton and London: Comparative studies in the development of complex societies (3 v.), 1986 A Study in Ethnic Group Political Behavior John Peter Paul, 1979
