Czechoslovakia between Stalin and Hitler Igor Lukes, 1996-05-23 The Munich crisis of 1938 in which Great Britain and France decided to appease Hitler s demands to annex the Sudetenland has provoked a vast amount of historical writing The era has been thoroughly examined from the perspectives of Germans French and British political establishments But historians have had until now only a vague understanding of the roles played by the Soviet Union and Czechoslovakia the country whose very existence was at the very center of the crisis In Czechoslovakia Between Stalin and Hitler Igor Lukes explores this turbulent and tragic era from the new perspective of the Prague government itself At the center of this study is Edvard Benes a Czechoslovak foreign policy strategist and a major player in the political machinations of the era The work looks at the first two decades of Benes s diplomacy and analyzes the Prague Government s attempts to secure the existence of the Republic of Czechoslovakia in the treacherous space between the millstones of the East and West It studies Benes s relationship with Joseph Stalin outlines the role assigned to Czechoslovak communists by the VIIth Congress of the Communist International in 1935 and dissects Prague s secret negotiations with Berlin and Benes s role in the famous Tuhachevsky affair The work also brings evidence regarding the so called partial mobilization of the Czechoslovak army in May 1938 and focuses on Stalin s strategic thinking on the eve of the World War II Until the fall of the Berlin Wall it was difficult for Western researchers to gain access to the rich archival collections of the East Czechoslovakia Between Stalin and Hitler makes ample use of these secret archives both in Prague and in Russia As a result it is an accurate and original rendition of the events which eventually sparked the Second World War

War Plans and Alliances in the Cold War Vojtech Mastny, Sven S. Holtsmark, Andreas Wenger, 2013-04-15 This essential new volume reviews the threat perceptions military doctrines and war plans of both the NATO alliance and the Warsaw Pact during the Cold War as well as the position of the neutrals from the post Cold War perspective Based on previously unknown archival evidence from both East and West the twelve essays in the book focus on the potential European battlefield rather than the strategic competition between the superpowers They present conclusions about the nature of the Soviet threat that could previously only be speculated about and analyze the interaction between military matters and politics in the alliance management on both sides with implications for the present crisis of the Western alliance This new book will be of much interest for students of the Cold War strategic history and international relations history as well as all military colleges

Czechoslovakia and the Czech Republic in World Politics Ladislav Cabada, Šárka Waisová, 2011-01-01 The book focuses on the description and analysis of the historical formation of the Czechoslovak and Czech positions in the international system during the course of the 20th century The first part of the book presents a brief outline of the history of Czechoslovak foreign policy between the First World War and the end of the Cold War The authors focus on the key periods and turning points in the role of the small Central European state in the international system as well as on the significant actors formulating Czechoslovak foreign policy from the inside and influencing it from the outside The second analytical part of the book focuses on the key issues connected to the change of the position of Czechoslovakia and the Czech Republic after 1993 in world politics and on the formulation of Czech foreign policy priorities and strategies in the globalized world after the end of bipolar confrontation The authors analytically investigate the activities of the Czech Republic in Central European regional integration processes and the integration of the state in the global system of development cooperation A great deal of attention is paid to the key political actors of the Czech foreign policy discussion and their impact on the formulation of foreign policy goals Special attention is paid to the dilemmas of Czech foreign policy the hesitation between the role of a small state and a medium power and also the span of Czech foreign policy between Atlanticism anti Americanism and Europeanization
