Dada Spirit:

Drawing on Art Dalia Judovitz, Marcel Duchamp, 2010 This volume explores the central importance of appropriation collaboration influence and play in French artist Marcel Duchamp's 1887-1968 work and in Dada and Surrealism in general to show how the concept of art itself became the critical fuel and springboard for questioning art's fundamental premises Duchamp was a French artist whose work is most often associated with the Dadaist and Surrealist movements The author maintains that rather than simply negating art Duchamp's readymades Duchamp's readymades are ordinary manufactured objects that the artist selected and modified as an antidote to what he called retinal art and later works including films and conceptual pieces demonstrating the impossibility of defining art in the first place Through his readymades Duchamp explicitly critiqued the commodification of art and inaugurated a profound shift from valuing art for its visual appearance to understanding the significance of its mode of public presentation Curious Disciplines Sarah Hayden, 2018-04-15 The transnational modernist Mina Loy 1882-1966 embodied the avant garde in many literary and artistic media This book positions her as a theorist of the avant garde and of what it means to be an artist Foregrounding Loy's critical interrogation of Futurist Dadaist Surrealist and Degenerate artishood and exploring her poetic legacies today Curious Disciplines reveals Loy's importance in an entirely novel way Examining the primary texts produced by those movements themselves their manifestos magazines pamphlets catalogues and speeches Sarah Hayden uses close readings of Loy's poetry prose polemics and unpublished writings to trace her response to how these movements wrote themselves collectively into being The
