Daily Life In Art:

Art in Every Day Life Harriet Irene Goldstein, Vetta Goldstein, 1925 Imperfectionist Aesthetics in Art and Everyday Life Peter Cheyne, 2022-12-30 This book presents interdisciplinary research on the aesthetics of perfection and imperfection Broadening this growing field it connects the aesthetics of imperfection with issues in areas including philosophy music literature urban environment architecture art theory and cultural studies The contributors to this volume argue that imperfection has value in being open and inclusive The aesthetics of imperfection is typified by organic unpolished production and the avoidance of perfect finish instead representing living and natural change and opposing the consumerist concern with the flawless and pristine The chapters are divided into seven thematic sections After the first section on imperfection across the arts and culture the next three parts are on imperfection in the arts of music visual and theatrical arts and literature The second half of this book then moves to categories in everyday life and branches this further into body self and the person and urban environments Together the chapters promote a positive ethos of imperfection that furthers individual and social engagement and supports creativity over mere passivity Imperfectionist Aesthetics in Art and Everyday Life will appeal to a broad range of scholars and advanced students working in philosophical aesthetics literature music urban environment architecture art theory and cultural studies

Performance Artists Talking in the Eighties Linda M. Montano, 2023-09-01 Performance artist Linda Montano curious about the influence childhood experience has on adult work invited other performance artists to consider how early events associated with sex food money fame or death ritual resurfaced in their later work The result is an original and compelling talking performance that documents the production of art in an important and often misunderstood community Among the more than 100 artists Montano interviewed from 1979 to 1989 were John Cage Suzanne Lacy Faith Ringgold Dick Higgins Annie Sprinkle Allan Kaprow Meredith Monk Eric Bogosian Adrian Piper Karen Finley and Kim Jones Her discussions with them focused on the relationship between art and life history and memory the individual and society and the potential for individual and social change The interviews highlight complex issues in performance art including the role of identity in performer audience relationships and art as an exploration of everyday conventions rather than a demonstration of virtuosity Performance artist Linda Montano curious about the influence childhood experience has on adult work invited other performance artists to consider how early events associated with sex food money fame or death ritual resurfaced in their later work The
