Digital Shutdowns and Social Media Shekh Moinuddin, 2021-03-10 This book offers a spatial insights on the social mediasphere in the context of digital shutdowns and reflects the dimensions of political economy and of social media in general Internet shutdowns have been found to be more prevalent in developing countries than in developed countries with India leading in Internet shutdowns in the world Internet shutdowns have occurred in India for several reasons mainly to hinder the spreading of information through social media this is discussed in detail along with political motives behind this and how this can conflict with government policies such as the flagship program Digital India which is ostensibly meant to improve the infrastructure and expansion of digital information throughout the country This book suggests new dimensions in the digital spatiality Furthermore the digital space is defined and discussed including its role and how this might be reflected in concepts around spatiality and spaces More concretely the book considers the following questions How is social media reflected in spatial sciences How does the space differ from more tangible spaces such as the hydrosphere or atmosphere How do computer mobile phone screens behave as a space place in the context of behavioural sciences How is this reflected in what is shaping and reshaping the spatiality of digital gadgets Do digital gadgets change the socialization process that is often considered a path towards how we develop in society How do internet shutdowns affect the political economy and what patterns can be seen in how individuals companies and the internet industry in particular react to these shutdowns in India

Archis, 2004 Future Interaction Design II Pertti Saariluoma, Hannakaisa Isomäki, 2009-04-28 The perspectives and techniques used in human computer interaction design practice and research are broadening This book looks at emerging approaches which are likely to contribute to the discipline in near future The underlying idea is that human character rather than technology should determine the nature of interaction The concept of interaction design covers this range of concerns relevant to enabling quality design Each chapter emphasizes alternative perspectives on interaction and new concepts to help researchers and practitioners relate to alternative design approaches and opportunities This second volume provides a wider perspective from both a scientific and geographic outlook New topics such as psychological design processes gerotechnology modelling e learning and subconscious experiences are discussed from a team of international authors This book will be of considerable value to those seeking innovative perspectives upon designing and ensuring effective interaction between humans and technology Urban Confrontations in Literature and Social Science, 1848-2001 Edward J. Ahearn,2016-02-11 In an innovative contribution to the challenging of disciplinary boundaries Edward J Ahearn juxtaposes works of literature with the writings of social scientists to discover how together they illuminate city life in ways that neither can accomplish separately Ahearn s argument spans from the second half of the nineteenth century in Western Europe to the present day United States and encompasses a wide range of literary genres and sociological schools For example Charles Baudelaire s essays on the city are viewed alongside the work of Emile Durkheim and Georg Simmel Bertolt Brecht s Jungle of Cities heightens the arguments of Louis Wirth and Robert Park Richard Wright s Native Son and Saul Bellow s The Adventures of Augie March are re visioned in tandem with works by William Julius Wilson and others Herman Melville s Bartleby the Scrivener poses a challenge to James Q Wilson s Bureaucracy Toni Morrison s historical novel Jazz is buttressed by the career of Robert Moses and the revisionist work of historians Hilary Ballon and Kenneth T Jackson and Don DeLillo s Cosmopolis comes into brilliant focus in the light of arguments on world cybercities by David Harvey Saskia Sassen and Manuel Cassels Resisting the temptation to ignore contradictions for the sake of interpretation Ahearn instead offers the reader a view of the modern city as complex as his subject matter Here the methodologies and knowledge generated by the social sciences are both complemented and subverted by the experience of city life as portrayed in literature With its diverse narrative tactics and shifting points of view which can be as disorienting to the reader as a foreign city is to an arriving immigrant literature reinforces the importance of method and outlook in the social sciences Ultimately Ahearn suggests neither literature nor the social sciences can capture the experience of urban misery Environment and Planning ,2005 Journal of urban planning and design Publishes research in the application of formal methods methods models and theories to spatial problems involving the built environment and the spatial structure of cities and regions Includes the application of computers to planning and design in particular the use of shape grammars artificial intelligence and morphological methods to buildings and towns the use of multimedia and GIS in urban and regional planning and the development of ideas concerning the virtual city An Introduction to New Media and Cybercultures Pramod K. Nayar,2010-01-11 This introduction to cybercultures provides a cutting edge and much needed guide to the rapidly changing world of new media and communication Considers cyberculture and new media through contemporary race gender and sexuality studies and postcolonial theory Offers a clear analysis of some of the most complex issues in cybercultures including identity network societies new geographies and connectivity Includes discussions of gaming social networking geography net democracy aesthetics popular internet culture the body sexuality and politics Examines key questions in the political economy racialization gendering and governance of cyberculture Mobile Computing ,2009 This multiple volume publication advances the emergent field of mobile computing offering research on approaches observations and models pertaining to mobile devices and wireless communications from over 400 leading researchers Provided by publisher Digital Cityscapes Adriana de Souza e Silva, Daniel M. Sutko, 2009 Digital Formations is the best source for critical well written books about digital technologies and modern life Books in the series break new ground by emphasizing multiple methodological and theoretical approaches to deeply probe the formation and reformation of lived experience as it is refracted through digital interaction The series examines broad issues in realms such as digital culture electronic commerce law politics and governance gender the Internet race art health and medicine and education Kuala Lumpur and Putrajaya Ross King, 2008-08-07 Arguably Southeast Asia s most spectacular city Kuala Lumpur widely known as KL has just celebrated fifty years as the national capital of Malaysia But KL now has a very different twin in Putrajaya the country s new administrative capital Where KL is a diverse cosmopolitan multiracial metropolis Putrajaya fulfills an elitest vision of a Malay Muslim utopia KL s multicultural richness is reflected in the brilliance and diversity of its architecture and urban spaces Putrajaya by contrast is an architectural homage to an imagined Middle East The purity of Putrajaya throws the cosmopolitan diversity of Kuala Lumpur into sharp relief and the tension between the two places reflects the rifts that run through Malaysian society In this copiously illustrated book Ross King considers what form of metropolis the Kuala Lumpur Putrajaya region might foreshadow arguing that signs of this future city are to be sought in the collision points between the utopian dreams of imagined futures and the reality of purposely forgotten pasts Drawing on postcolonial studies media studies and critical social theory Kuala Lumpur and Putrajaya makes a significant contribution to architecture urban planning urban design and Malaysian politics and society Exploring Collaborative Urban Strategies Marisa Carmona, Marinda Schoonraad, 2004 The opening of the economy to external markets has brought about the re assessment of the significance of large spatial agglomerations and the accentuation of polarization at national scale The dual movement of centralization and de concentration processes inwards and outwards contributes to urban sprawl beyond the limits of metropolitan areas as has been demonstrated in Shanghai Jakarta Delta Metropolis Mexico City Sao Paulo and Santiago Its consequences for urban structure and urban morphology are immense and complex and it has fostered social fragmentation of space changing location opportunities land uses and centralities The importance of transport and communication is accentuated large intra and inter urban connectivity are generated together with the generation of articulated networks corridors nodes with impact in land values New lifestyles new urban environments and new form of governance emerge and need to be theoretically and empirically underpinned Action Research and New Media Greg Hearn, 2009 Action research is now a well documented and well accepted research methodology Moreover it is especially appropriate in new media research where innovation and change are continual and where processes and outcomes are usually not predictable and often involve fuzzy and subjective human elements This book offers a systematic in depth academic overview of the application of action research methods to the field of new media In this space it is the first publication of its kind in what is a new but rapidly growing field The book is divided into two sections Introducing the two key concepts namely new media and action research the first section describes the underlying principles processes questions methods and tools that are relevant to an action research approach to new media inquiry This is followed by a deeper exploration of three advanced innovative approaches to action research and new media ethnographic network and anticipatory action research The third and final section presents four case studies and their individual applications of action research in different new media contexts

The Top Books of the Year Cybercities Reader The year 2023 has witnessed a noteworthy surge in literary brilliance, with numerous engrossing novels enthralling the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of popular books, exploring the captivating narratives that have captivated audiences this year. Cybercities Reader : Colleen Hoover "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Cybercities Reader : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and suspenseful novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
