Lockwood's Directory of the Paper and Allied Trades ,1969 America's Textile Reporter ,1901 Not So Prime Time Howard Rosenberg,2005-07-21 In this witty and candid perspective on American television the Pulitzer Prize winning critic Howard Rosenberg traces a disturbing pattern TV's relentless pursuit of the mundane in its seeming quest to dumb down America And he writes it may be succeeding How else to interpret the onslaught of look alike deceptively titled reality shows that have transformed much of prime time into a cratered moonscape The longer mediocrity endures Mr Rosenberg advises the greater the chance we will become permanently desensitized to it and seduced by it making third rate the standard He finds occasional heroes but more often rogues Many of his essays in Not So Prime Time relate to television news which the author charges has failed dismally in its shrilly self proclaimed role as a Bethlehem star of enlightenment its influence continuing to widen in circles that value tabloid over truth He finds it hard to say in fact whether there is more reality in Survivor or in a typical newscast on CNN the Fox News Channel or MSNBC News and entertainment now mingle on TV as intimately as singles snorting up together at a cocktail party becoming interchangeable with newscasts cross dressing as theater and vice versa Not So Prime Time records how this has happened not overnight the crud has been creeping forward for years Oh the horror
