Compulsion A Novel:

Compulsion Meyer Levin, 2015-04-14 Judd Steiner and Artie Straus have it all wealth intelligence and the world at their feet as part of the elite upper crust Jewish community of 1920s Chicago Artie is handsome athletic and popular but he possesses a hidden powerful sadistic streak and a desire to dominate Judd is a weedy introvert a genius who longs for a companion whom he can idolize and worship Obsessed with Nietzsche's idea of the superhuman both boys decide to prove that they are above the laws of man by arbitrarily picking and murdering a Jewish boy in their neighborhood This new edition of Meyer Levin's classic literary thriller Compulsion reintroduces the fictionalized case of Leopold and Loeb once considered the crime of the century to a new generation This incisive psychological portrait of two young murderers seized the imagination of an era and is generally recognized as paving the way for the first non-fiction novel Compulsion forces us to ask what drives some further into darkness and some to seek redemption Heartbreaking as it is gripping Compulsion is written with a tense and penetrating force that led the Los Angeles Times to call Levin the most significant Jewish writer of his times

Compulsion Allison Brennan, 2015-04-07 Investigative reporter Maxine Revere has a theory that the five New York City murders for which Adam Bachman is being tried are just part of his killing spree In probing the disappearance of a retired couple who vanished the prior summer Max uncovers striking similarities to Bachman's MO and develops a theory that Bachman wasn't working alone Max wins a coveted pre-trial interview with the killer whose disarming composure in the face of her questions is combined with uncomfortable knowledge of Max's own past She leaves the room convinced but unable to prove that Bachman knows exactly what happened to the missing couple The D.A. wants nothing to jeopardize his case against Bachman and refuses to consider Max's theory With no physical evidence Max has to rely on her own wits and investigative prowess to dig deep into Bachman's past The picture that Max puts together is far darker and more deadly than she ever imagined As Max gets closer to the truth she doesn't realize that she's walking down a road that has been paved just for her That every step she takes brings her one step closer to a brilliant methodical sociopath who has been waiting for her to make just one small mistake And when she does he'll be there waiting Max Revere returns in another gripping pulse-pounding thriller from New York Times bestseller Allison Brennan Compulsion is a gripping pulse-pounding thriller that readers will not want to put down Crimespreemagazine
