Abstract

The compulsion to confess

This paper draws on the work of Michel Foucault in order to sketch a preliminary genealogy of the practice of confession in the twentieth century. The essay argues that confession has undergone major transformations, not only from a chiefly religious to a secular practice, but to a form of psychologised self-knowledge productively typical of knowledge itself in post-Kantian modernity. In other words, we argue that confession has become diffused through knowledge practices such that it becomes imperative to confess to a particular style or use of language in the pursuit of such knowledge. The confession of a style in language thus becomes a prerequisite for such knowledge, or the inability to arrive at it. We investigate the phenomenon in the examples of the 'factional' literature of Norman Mailer, and the human science of ethnography.

1. Introduction

In confession the sinner tells what he knows; in analysis the neurotic has to tell more (Freud, 1986:289).

One of the most striking things about the late twentieth century in the West is the fact that despite the existence of a strenuously secular culture, and the ongoing disappearance of formal institutions of confession, the compulsion to confess, even in the most unlikely of contexts, is still unmistakably with us. Confessional discourse continues to thrive and what might appear at first glance to be no more than an arcane or distinctively Christian religious practice has shown itself capable of a surprisingly long and varied life. What is more, far from being seen as conservative, in their contemporary forms confessional practices are most often regarded as progressive and epistemologically radical. In what follows we wish to examine the origins of the contemporary forms of confessional practices and assess their claims to epistemological power.

Compulsion To Confess:

The ERP Workbook for OCD Gerard Bishop, 2025-10-20 Are obsessive thoughts and exhausting rituals controlling your life Does Any of This Sound Familiar You can't stop checking cleaning or counting even though it's exhausting You replay conversations or images until you're mentally drained You avoid places or people fearing they'll trigger anxiety You constantly seek reassurance only to doubt yourself again moments later I get it Living with OCD is like being stuck in a loop that never stops spinning You try to reason with your thoughts to calm yourself down but the what ifs always return stronger louder more convincing You start doubting everything even yourself I've been there too And I know how heavy that feels Therapists who don't specialize in OCD often make it worse Medication dulls the edges but leaves the cycle intact Mindfulness apps Breathing exercises Useless against a disorder this specific You need a method that rewires the alarm system at its source That method is Exposure and Response Prevention ERP But First a Warning If you're looking for a quick fix or a one hour cure this isn't it This workbook isn't for those expecting instant results without effort Real change takes courage honesty and consistency The exercises here will challenge you but they'll also transform you one step at a time If you're ready to face your fears commit to the process and finally regain control you'll discover how much freedom has been waiting on the other side of fear Inside this book The 14 types of hidden compulsions most people don't recognize as compulsions one of them is probably sabotaging your recovery right now Page 42 Why checking the lock 5 times creates more doubt than checking once Page 103 What actually happens in your brain during the first 10 minutes of an exposure and why quitting early makes OCD stronger Page 51 The counterintuitive reason contamination fears get worse the more you wash Page 92 How to sit with the thought what if I stab my partner without confessing analyzing or avoiding knives Page 144 The exposure hierarchy mistake that causes people to quit in week one Page 38 Why asking do I really love them destroys the feeling you're trying to confirm Page 131 The 6 self check questions to know if you've turned ERP into a compulsion and how to fix it Page 62 What to do when your partner keeps reassuring you even after you asked them to stop Page 87 How to handle intrusive sexual thoughts without spiraling into self hatred Page 115 The real reason you can't throw anything away it's not about the objects Page 177 Why praying for 3 hours makes you feel further from God not closer Page 159 This Book is for You if You're exhausted by rituals consuming your days You're done losing hours fighting intrusive thoughts Anxiety makes everyday tasks feel overwhelming You've started avoiding places that trigger your fears OCD has strained your relationships and isolated you Temporary relief isn't enough you want lasting calm You're tired of doubting yourself and second guessing everything You constantly seek reassurance but it never lasts Your routines have expanded robbing your productivity You're ready to face your fears instead of running away Imagine feeling calm again experiencing genuine relaxation and rediscovering the joy in daily activities you once avoided You have the opportunity right now to start living that life Ready to leave OCD behind and start living your life again Confession and Absolution Thomas Worthley
